

32nd Anniversary Louisiana Flute Festival

April 27, 2019 ❖ Tulane University ❖ New Orleans, LA

Middle School Young Artist Competition and High School Young Artist Competition

Competition Description:

The Middle School Young Artist Competition is open to all aspiring flutists in grades 6-8. The High School Young Artist Competition is open to all aspiring flutists in grades 9-12. Pre-registration is required for these competitions. There are two components to each of the competitions:

Part One-Competition:

On the day of the festival, applicants will perform LIVE for a panel of judges, and may play repertoire of his or her choice. The selection must be no longer than 10 minutes. Piano accompaniment is not provided but is strongly encouraged when appropriate. One winner and one runner-up will be selected from each competition, and each will receive a cash prize: First prize: $100, Second prize: $50.

Part Two-Master Class:

The winners of the competition will have the opportunity to perform in the Winner's Master Class with our guest clinician. If the winner does not choose to play in the master class, the opportunity will be offered to the runner-up. The winners for each division will be announced at the beginning of Competition Winners Masterclass.

Competition Requirements

- Applicants are required to PRE-REGISTER by April 15, 2019.
- Performing with piano accompaniment is not required but strongly recommended. Applicants must provide their own pianist at their own expense. For recommendations of pianists, please contact the Competition Coordinator.
- There is a $15 fee to participate in this competition, and applicants are required to be a current member of the Louisiana Flute Society. Registration payment for the festival will pay annual membership dues.
