MEDICAL ASSISTANCE IN DYING On October 20th, the Canadian Conference of Catholic Bishops released a statement expressing their opposition to the re-tabling of Bill C-7, an act to amend the Criminal Code around medical assistance in dying re-introduced by the federal government on October 5, 2020. This statement is in addition to the joint ecumenical and interfaith statement released on 14 October 2020 entitled: "We Can and Must do Much Better – Religious Leaders in Canada denounce Bill C-7, 'An Act to amend the Criminal Code (medical assistance in dying)'".

As the legislation introduced this month remains unchanged from that which was tabled on 24 February 2020, the Bishops of Canada once again express their serious concerns regarding Bill C-7 and call upon all Canadians to express their opposition to the Bill. As said in the statement: "The proposed legislation of Bill C-7 remains deeply flawed, unjust, and morally pernicious. The Bishops of Canada call on Catholics and all people of good will to make their voices heard in opposition to the Bill. Similarly, all Canadian legislators should recall that no law that permits the taking of innocent human life can ever be morally justified. Such a law would always violate the intrinsic dignity of the human person." This statement can be found at the following link: <https://www.cccb.ca/wp-content/uploads/2020/10/CCCB-statement-on-Bill-C-7-20-October-2020-EN.pdf>

UPCOMING MEETINGS:

Youth Faith Commission: Thursday, November 26th at 6:00 p.m. Meeting will take place at the Diocesan Offices on York Street. Masks are mandatory. Please use the Dominion Street entrance.

TRANSFORMED THROUGH EUCHARIST Your final opportunity to register for the upcoming workshop: Transformed Through Eucharist is Tuesday, November 17th. Taking place on Thursday, November 19th at Immaculate Heart of Mary Church, Riverview, beginning at 6:30 p.m., you are asked to arrive by 6:00 to ensure that we are safely able to receive everyone. While parents of all children in the English sector preparing to receive the sacrament of Eucharist for the first time are expected to attend this session, anyone is most welcome to join us. Karen LeBlanc and Ellen Bennett will speak about the Liturgy of the Eucharist, and what we as Roman Catholic Christians believe takes place during its celebration.

Please contact Ellen or your parish catechetical coordinator to register and confirm your attendance.

THE END IS NIGH: Exploring the Book of Revelations

Can there be a better time to delve into the Book of Revelations than 2020????? Join Dr. Andrew Wilson and Dr. Fiona Black on Tuesday, November 24th from 7:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. in this virtual session, as they look at Revelations as an example of "apocalyptic literature" an ancient mode of storytelling with a rich and evocative history, consider its place within our Christian tradition and explore what it might add to an appreciation of the topsy-turvy times within which we live. This final book of the New Testament often poses a challenge to interpreters with its colourful and fantastical imagery of the end of days. At the same time, given the bewildering events of the past year alone, it seems more relevant to our current world situation than ever.

Registration deadline is November 23rd. Please contact Ellen to register – you will need an email address to receive the link that will join you to the presentation.

Exploring our Faith

Whatsoever Things are True

When preparing young people to receive the Sacrament of Confirmation we often speak to them of gifts. We speak about the Gifts of the Holy Spirit (wisdom, understanding, counsel, fortitude, knowledge, piety, and wonder & awe) as well as the Fruit of the Holy Spirit

(love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control.) The idea being that when we graciously receive the gifts God bestows upon each of us and work at strengthening them, we are rewarded with the fruit of our effort.

One way in which we speak to this relationship between gifts and their fruit is through the telling of what is often attributed to as a Native American parable, called “The Two Wolves,” and it goes something like this:

An old Cherokee is teaching his grandson about life. “A fight is going on inside all of us,” he said to the boy. “It is a terrible fight and it is between two wolves. One is evil. He is anger, envy, sorrow, regret, arrogance, self-pity, resentment, inferiority, false-pride, superiority, and ego.

He continued, “The other wolf is good – she is joy, peace, love, hope, serenity, humility, kindness, benevolence, empathy, generosity, truth, compassion, and faith. The same fight is going on inside you – and inside every other person, too.”

The grandson thought about it for a minute and then asked his grandfather, “Which wolf will win?”

The old Cherokee simply replied, “The one you feed.”

“The Two Wolves” may not be a perfect comparison, but the central message stands: receive the gifts given to us by God, grow and nurture them and everyone will benefit from the fruit of our effort. Not just me, but those around me as well.

In a perfect world I would say, “and we all lived happily ever after,” but... reality...and I am telling you the last thing you want to chirp at someone experiencing a depressive episode or someone who has lost their job because of COVID-19 is, “Cheer up, buttercup! Feed the Good Wolf! 😊❤️☐”

Another way I can look at this is to ask myself if my behaviour is motivated by fear or by love?” Am I feeding my fear so it multiplies and colours how I see the world around me or am I feeding the love within me so that multiplies and colours my world view? Do I express my faith through fear or through the lens of Christ’s love?

Reflect for a moment on how differently the two might look.

The truthful answer for me personally is that I strive to focus on that which is good and true and honourable but sometimes succumb to that which is not, and I suspect this may be a realistic depiction of how life unfolds for many of us.

Yet the Parable of the Talents told by Jesus in today’s gospel reminds us that we will never run short of that which we offer to God. More love, more compassion, more kindness, more understanding are the things which will not only multiply by my giving of them, but at the same time will draw me closer to God. Despite my knowledge of “the instructions,” I suspect the struggle between the two wolves is one that will continue to play out for the remainder of my human experience.

~Trevor Driesbeck, Office of Youth Faith Development
