

Meet Max:

Max is an 8 year old black and tan dachshund. He is very laid back and easygoing, but also very loving and cuddly.

He likes to be with people and gives nice kisses.

Max comes from an active household with small children.

Max is house trained and uses a doggie door. He is a good eater and needs to lose a pound or two to be at his ideal healthy weight.

Max is a sweet boy who gets along well with other dogs and cats.

