The Face of God is Mercy (Pope Francis, 2016) There are many in our communities who are living with life-limiting illnesses, and sometimes, even with the very best of intentions, we find it hard to be present fully to them as they walk this road. Fr. Denis Beliveau, Regional Coordinator of Spiritual Care with Vitalité Health Network has made this journey many times. Join him on Monday, March 9 from 6:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. at the Dan Bohan Family Centre, Immaculate Heart of Mary Church, Riverview as he explores: Is the mercy of God for me transforming my way of relating to others? How can my presence embody the mercy of God to others experiencing existential distress? How can mercy, tenderness and love inform my posture in society and my way of being present to the sick, especially the chronically ill? Pre-registration is necessary and may be done by contacting Ellen.

Understanding Homelessness: Pathways, Myths, Real Solutions

A Way to Put Our Faith into Action This Lent: on Thursday, March 12th at 6:30 p.m. at St. Bernard's Church, Lisa Ryan, a passionate advocate and speaker on many complex social issues like homelessness will facilitate conversation in a relaxed and open environment providing insight into one of the most current and misunderstood issues facing us today. We will discuss myths, reveal truths, and outline clear and proven solutions that are successfully ending homelessness all over the world.

This is an initiative of the Adult Faith Commission and all are invited and encouraged to attend. We are hoping to create a pool of gifts from folks in all our faith communities that can be used to "help the helpers". There is a great need of the talents you have to offer; talents you may not have thought would be useful, such as Notaries, Nurses (retired or active), hairdressers, or a person who has time to just sit for coffee with someone once a week. We all have something to offer. If you would like to attend please contact Mark Mahoney at markmahoney@rogers.com or call 386-6178 to register.

Create in me a Clean Heart O God, a clean heart O God, create in me. We all carry some kind of 'baggage' with us....something that holds us back from experiencing the fullness of a true loving relationship with God. Throughout Lent, parishioners of St. Augustine's are invited to, not only contemplate what their personal 'baggage' might be, but consider what they can do to make a change. Write what you wish to change and deposit into the sealed box located at the main entrance of the church. The box, and its contents, will be burned in our Easter Vigil fire, symbolizing our entering into the Easter season with a clean heart.

We will pray the Way of the Cross during the holy season of Lent on Friday evenings at 6:30 p.m. To make this prayer available to as many people as possible, we will celebrate it in different churches according to the following schedule:

February 28th – Holy Family	March 20th - Immaculate Heart of Mary
March 6th – St. Augustine's	March 27th – St. Augustine's
March 13th – St. Bernard's	April 3rd – St. Bernard's
Good Friday, April 10th - Holy Family

WORLD DAY OF PRAYER 2020 MONCTON: World Day of Prayer is a global ecumenical movement which brings Christians of many traditions together to observe a common day of prayer each year. This year's service has been prepared by the women of the Zimbabwe and the theme is Rise! Take your mat and walk. The service is at St. Bernard's Church, Friday, March 6 at 2 PM. The offering collected will be forwarded to the WICC (Women's Inter-Church Council of Canada) to support justice projects which will receive funding through a WICC grant. If you have questions, or have individuals from your church willing to take part in reading at the service, please leave a message for Claudia McCloskey at St. Bernard's 857-0425.

Lenten Walk with the Lord – 40 Acts of Kindness: A parishioner is presenting an additional or optional way to enhance and enrich your Lenten commitment and experience. "Lenten Walk with the Lord" invites you to do one (1) simple act of kindness for each of the 40 days of Lent. There is a calendar which will be placed at the front of the Church to help you keep track of your kindnesses along with some simple instructions to help guide you. For example, kindness can be as simple as a smile and often begins at home.

Lent is a good time to begin to practise the discipline of choosing to be in God's presence and just being with Him, and in the silence recognizing that He is there. Our Sacred Space Community of Christian Meditation practises this daily discipline and we invite you to join us for a Contemplative Walk in the nave of Immaculate Heart of Mary Church in Riverview each Friday during Lent at 7:00 p.m. beginning this Friday, February 28th. Jesus said, "Where two or more are gathered in my name, there am I in their midst." Join us in this 'recovered' form of prayer of the early Christians and Desert Fathers. For questions or to confirm your attendance, call Dianne LeBlanc, 386 6094. Be still and know that I am God. Psalm 34

Exploring our Faith

RULES BEFORE NEEDS: IT DOESN'T HAVE TO BE THAT WAY.

When the new Roman Missal (big, red book the priest prays from during Mass) was brought into effect on the first Sunday of Advent 2011, it brought about a major shift in language. If you have ever participated at a Mass I presided at, you may not have noticed much of a change. Why? Let me explain. The new Missal is full of language like: oblation, sanctify, exultant majesty, homage, expiation, consubstantial, virtues of heaven, beseech, etc. (If I was to use words like that, I would make it mandatory for you to bring your dictionary or thesaurus to Mass; you would need it just as much as I do.) The reason you haven't noticed much of a change, when I'm presiding, is because I'm translating those words on the fly. For example, when I see the word "oblation," I immediately say the word "offering"; when I see the word "sanctify," I promptly translate it into "to make holy." Those bishops and theologians, who felt the need for a new translation, must have felt the more lofty-sounding and the more Latin-sounding a word is, the holier it must be. But they made the cardinal sin that no public speaker should make—they ignored their audience. A parishioner once said, "the audience doesn't matter; it's the message that matters." What is the message, then? This is clearly the message: The audience is not important (99% of the Church doesn't matter). And Jesus could not have known what he was doing explaining the Kingdom of God with simple language like wheat, coins, bread, wineskins, water, oil; he must have meant to say "consubstantial with the Father." Right?

For example, the clause (remember from your English grammar that a clause, placed between two commas, can be eliminated without affecting the meaning of a sentence) "we pray" is said over and over and over by the presider at Mass. All liturgy is prayer; you don't have to keep repeating it like a parrot. Translators of the 2011 Missal wanted, according to Bishop Barron, to communicate the majesty of God the King. Period! Bishop Barron goes on to say that "we pray" is the equivalent of "we beg" or "we beseech". I have no problem with God as king. But this repetitive language of "we pray" conjures up the idea of a king seated upon a throne while a servant comes in groveling on hands and knees feeling guilty for having disturbed the king in the first place. Jesus is my king and always will be. However, the Missal portrays him as an earthly king who lords it over his subjects and just loves it when His subjects beg at a safe distance. If those who did the translation of the new Missal would have read the gospels, just once, they would have known that Jesus avoided all overtures to make him an earthly king. The Missal perpetually uses language that keeps the distance between us and God. Ask yourself: Does the language you hear at Mass bring you and God closer?

Jesus is my king and always will be. Jesus is the servant king who never sat on a throne while he walked among us. Jesus is the servant king who washed his disciples' feet. Jesus is the servant king who said, "I do not call you servants, but I call you 'friends'" (Jn. 15:15). We prefer kings on thrones over foot-washers. Had those in charge of the Missal's translation read John's gospel, even just once, we would not have the terrible translation we are stuck with. I suspect they did read the gospel, but they chose to ignore it. They preferred language of "we pray," the formal and stately language of beggars coming into the king's court. You know who doesn't use this language? Children. They don't beg, beseech or pray to come into the Lord's presence as groveling servants. They sit in the Lord's lap as friends. They come before the Lord with singing, with joy, and with confidence, as we are all supposed to do. I guess those responsible for the new Missal, (and those priests who recite these words mindlessly), clearly put rules before needs. It doesn't have to be that way; Jesus showed us another way.
