

South Coastal AARP

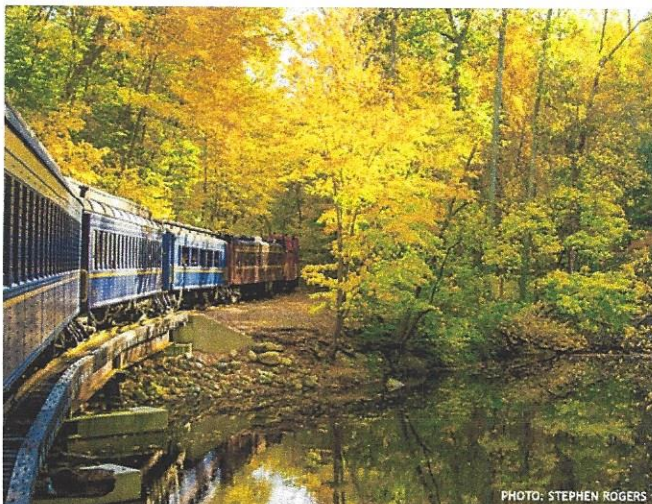

Presents Wilmington & Western Railroad Fall Foliage Steam Train Trip

Take a leisurely 1½-hour round-trip ride up the Red Clay Valley to the Mt. Cuba Picnic Grove to take in the glorious colors of the changing leaves. The train stops for a ½-hour layover to have a snack or simply admire the natural surroundings. Our Mt. Cuba Meteor will be pulled by old "4-4-0 AMERICAN 98", a steam locomotive built in 1907.

Wednesday, October 18, 2017 - This One Day Trip Includes:

Deluxe Motor Coach Transportation, Bus Driver Gratuity, train ride and conductor's tip.
