

Gene Milton Bagley, Sr. / 195

BOSSIER CITY, LA - Graveside services for Gene Milton Bagley, Sr., age 58, will be held at 11 a.m. Tuesday, October 22, 1996 at Lakeview Memorial Gardens at Oil City, La. with Rev. Weldon Sistrunk of Tower Baptist church officiating, assisted by Rev. Jeff Hoffman of 1st Baptist Church in Oil City, under the direction of McGuire Funeral Home in Vivian, La. Visitation will be from 6 -9 p.m. on Monday, October 21, 1996.

Gene Milton Bagley, Sr. died Saturday October 19, 1996 at his resident in Bossier City, La. where he had resided for the past two months prior to his death following a lengthy illness. He was a former longtime resident of Caddo Lake at Karnack. He was born December 11, 1937 in McLeod Tx. He was well known in Oil and Gas Circles as an Independent Operator. He was owner of G & G Rental Service, Inc., Ark-La-Tex Boring Service and Ark-La-Tex Anchor Service. He was a Baptist.

He was preceded in death by his father George M. Bagley and his father-in-law Courtney Stewart.

He is survived by his wife of 39 years, Karen Stewart Bagley of Bossier City, La.; children Gene Milton Bagley, Jr. of Bossier City, La.; George Edward Bagley of Bossier City, La.; Gary Lee Bagley of Bossier City, La.; Gwen Payne and husband Rocque of Bossier City, La.; grandchildren Michael Stewart Hawkins, Derek Sean Payne and Cassie Leann Bagley; mother Frances Rebecca Bagley of Oil City, La; sisters Georgia Riggs of Hemphill, Tx. and Joan Cathey of Shreveport, La.; brothers Herman D. Bagley of Oil City, La.; and Cleveland Bagley of Oxford, Al., mother-in-law Mrs. Lois Stewart of Atlanta, Tx.

Pallbearers will be Bill Brannon, John Collier, Doyle Fortenberry, Vernon R. Frye, Haskill Hill, James F. Slagle, W. T. Winston.

Honorary Pallbearers will be Jerry Woodell, Wayne Veatch, Sam Gregorio.

Special thanks to Hospice of Bossier Medical Center.

The family requests that memorials be made to the charity of the donors choice.

McGuire Funeral Home
Vivian, La. 318-375-3223