SECOND SUNDAY of LENT

STATIONS of the CROSS - WAY of the CROSS

(Also called Stations of the Cross, Via Crucis, and Via Dolorosa). You may be surprised to learn that the Stations of the Cross are very closely associated with St. Francis of Assisi (c. 1181-1226). In 1209, St. Francis founded the Franciscan Order, which consists of communities of men and women who follow the way of life that St. Francis established. Formerly their number varied considerably in different places but fourteen are now prescribed by authority.

St. Francis himself, inspired by a desire to evangelize, went to the Holy Land during the Fifth Crusade. It was a dangerous time to be in the Holy Land, but St. Francis desired to share the Gospel with everyone. He even managed to appear before the sultan, who was the nephew of Saladin, the original leader of the forces opposing the Crusaders. St. Francis presented the Good News of Jesus Christ to the sultan in a bold gesture of zeal; a gesture that St. Francis knew could end in martyrdom. Instead, the sultan graciously received St. Francis, and eventually, he returned home to Italy unharmed.

The object of the Stations is to help the faithful to make in spirit, as it were, a pilgrimage to the chief scenes of Christ's sufferings and death, and this has become one of the most popular of Catholic devotions. It is carried out by passing from Station to Station, with certain prayers at each and devout meditation on the various incidents in turn. They are as follows:

- I. Christ condemned to death. II. The cross is laid upon him. III: His first fall. IV. He meets His Blessed Mother. V: Simon of Cyrene is made to bear the cross. VI: Christ's face is wiped by Veronica. VII: His second fall. VIII: He meets the women of Jerusalem. IX: His third fall. X: He is stripped of His garments. XI: His crucifixion. XII: His death on the cross. XIII: His body is taken down from the cross. XIV Jesus is laid in the tomb.

We welcome you to join our congregation of Saint Paul! Registration forms are available at the back of the church, near the entrance or contact Rae Crozier for more information.

Pro-life OB-GYNs Are Banned from Hosting Exhibit Booth at Medical Conference

An association of pro-life obstetricians has literally been canceled by the American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists (ACOG).

For the past 15 years, the group has had an exhibit booth at the annual conference of the Council on Resident Education in Obstetrics and Gynecology (CREOG) and the Association of Professors of Gynecologists and Obstetricians (APGO), which is hosted by ACOG.

This year, without warning, leaders of the pro-life doctors' group arrived at the conference at the Gaylord National Resort and Conference Center in National Harbor, Maryland, only to be told that their exhibit booth had been canceled.

JESUS REVOLUTION now playing at Coral Cliffs Cinema, Hurricane through Thursday, March 8th. Check online for times.

Based on a true story. In the 1970s, Greg Laurie and a sea of young people descend on sunny Southern California to redefine truth through all means of liberation. Inadvertently, Laurie meets a charismatic street preacher and a pastor who open the doors to a church to a stream of wandering youth. What unfolds is a counterculture movement that becomes the greatest spiritual awakening in American history. Staring Jonathan Roumie from The Chosen and Kelsey Grammer from Frazier, Cheers, etc.

A LITTLE SUNDAY HUMOR! Provided by: Steve

If you're so dead-set against gambling, how come you're still in the marriage business?

★ Father was teaching kids about vestments asked, "Why do you suppose I wear this collar?" Marvin eagerly replied, "Because it kills fleas and ticks for up to 30 days!"

★ Isn't it ironic that the angriest people on television are named Whoopie, Sunny and Joy?

Knights of Columbus SPAGHETTI DINNER!

The Knights of Columbus are hosting a Italian Spaghetti

Night/Dinner on March 18 at 6:00 p.m. at Kuzy Hall adjacent to St George Church.

$15 per person. Beer and wine will be available.

Please see Mark Borowiak for tickets and more information.

Life is a question and the way we live it is the answer.
