Membership

Membership in the SDSGA is open to anyone with an interest in the sheep industry. Annual dues provide membership in both SDSGA and ASI. Members also receive the monthly "Sheep Industry News" and weekly ASI email newsletters. Dues are $75 per year for active sheep producers. A $75 non-voting Associate Membership is available for sheep & wool industry affiliated businesses & persons not directly involved in raising sheep. Membership dollars are used to support part-time salary of the Executive Secretary, the SDSGA Premium Ewe Sale, support for improved predator management, marketing & promotion of the SD Sheep Industry, & our annual convention. SDSGA promotes shearing schools, sheep & wool related educational events throughout the year, & Make It With Wool & Lead-In contests. Your contribution to SDSGA efforts is greatly appreciated!

Youth Membership

A non-voting Youth Membership of $5 per year is also available. Youth programs supported include: 4-H Market Lamb Rate-of-Gain project, Lamb-to-Finish contest, and special shows at the South Dakota State Fair.

SDSGA

- is the trade association for South Dakota sheep producers. South Dakota is the sixth largest producer of lamb & wool in the United States.
- is a state member of the American Sheep Industry.
- focuses on lamb & fiber promotion on a statewide basis, & on educational events to keep members and the public updated on issues affecting the sheep industry.

No matter the number of sheep you raise, everyone in the sheep industry is welcome to join!

Member benefits include:

- Stay up to date with happenings in the sheep industry
- Representation on issues that affect the sheep industry & have your voice heard
- Networking at SDSGA sheep related events
- Affiliate memberships of American Sheep Industry Association & American Lamb Board
- Opportunities for continuing education in sheep production & management
