

Margaret Clark, 75
Oak Park, MN
Oct. 11, 1941 - Nov. 25, 2016

Margaret Clark, age 75, of Oak Park passed away Nov. 25, 2016, with her family by her side at the Foley Nursing Center. Memorial Services celebrating the life of Margaret will be Saturday, Dec. 3, 2016, at 11 a.m. at Foley Funeral Home with visitation from 9-11 a.m. Pastor Allen Jergenson will officiate. Service with Dignity provided by Foley Funeral Home.

Margaret Anne Clark was born Oct. 11, 1941, in Grey Eagle, the daughter of Paul and Joanna Rosen. She was raised near Upsala, Holdingford and St. Cloud. Margaret had a passion for caring for others and became a nursing assistant working in a variety of settings. On her birthday in 1978, she was united in marriage with Jay Clark.

The couple made their home farming in Oak Park. Together they shared their love for children and served as foster parents for many over the years. Margaret's great joy was caring for her grandchildren, but she also loved flowers and gardening. Their farm transformed into a gardener's showcase at times with Margaret's green thumb at work on the lawn, flowers, garden and shrubs.

Margaret is survived by her husband, Jay of Oak Park; children: Simon 'Sam' (Bonnie) Langner of Barbeau, Mich.; and Ann (Tim) Landowski of Foreston; step-daughter, Rita Ahles of Grand Forks, N.D.; honorary son, Tim Pitschka of Sauk Rapids; grandchildren: Lisa (Patrick) Yeager of Pierz; Dexter (Amanda) Landowski of Hilman, Patrick Todd of St. Cloud; and Benjamin 'Ben' Todd of St. Cloud; great-grandchildren: Leanna, Aniah and Jeremiah Yeager and Oliver Landowski; brothers: James Rosen of Waite Park and Ronald Rosen of Denver, Colo.; uncle, Al Rosen of Waite Park; as well as many foster children, step-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, other relatives and many friends.

She was preceded in death by her parents; husbands: Anthony Langner and Lawrence Wolters; step-children: Ted Wolters, Sheila Wolters; and five siblings.