

Rebekah's Song

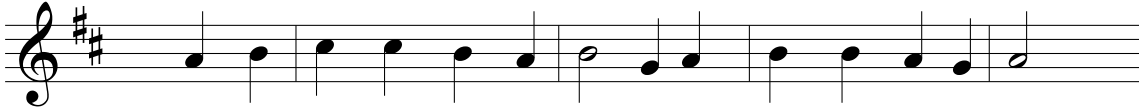

William Flanders

1. There's a lone - ly coun-try townwhere the wo - men all come down
2. So be - gins the ser - a - nade of a sim - ple vil-lage maid
3. But the strang-er was a man from the house of Ab - ra - ham,
4. "Love - ly mai - den, are you free to leave home and fol-low me?

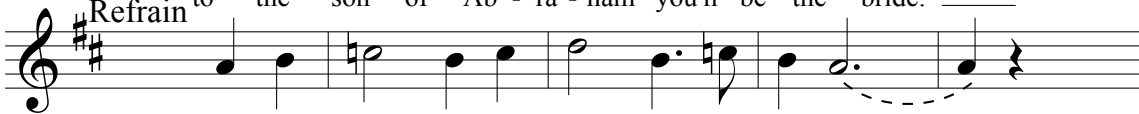

to the well___ at the end___ of the day._____
with a spir - it in - de - pen - dent and bold._____
on a quest to which he pledged his ver - y life._____
O - ver miles and miles of des - ert we will ride._____

When a strang-er pass - es by, he can't help but won-der why
Who, for no ap - par - ent gain, wa-tered one whole cam-el train,
With his cam - el car - a - van he came 'cross the des-ert sand:
There in Ca - naan, where your name will have ev - er - last-ing fame, eve - ry maid sets down her pitch - er in his way._____

just be - cause the man who asked was tired and old._____
for young I - saac he must try to find a wife._____
to the son of Ab - ra - ham you'll be the bride."_____

Will you come to the well? fair Re - bek - ah?_____

Will you leave all your child - hood be - hind?_____
