

The Tale of Her Name Is Lola

I was born in New Jersey on May 11, 2019. My registered Jockey Club name is Her Name Is Lola and I wear yellow feathers in my hair!

My dad is multiple graded stakes winning millionaire, War Dancer! He is a son of the great sire, War Front. I think I get my looks from him!

Mama Get Even is my mom and let me tell you, she does! During her race career, she came in the money 8 out of 10 times. My mom's dad is Multiple Graded Stakes Winner, Stephen Got Even. Her mom is Tomisue's Mamaloi who is by the Multiple Graded Stakes Winner, Gone West. My family tree has a lot of winner in it!

I had a lot of fun growing up on the farm and my mom was so loving. When my friends and I had to go off and learn to be independent, my human mom says bedlam ensued and claims we even tried to run her over! As punishment, we were all sent to school in Ocala!

I was an excellent student at Cadence Training Stable. My lessons were done well and was an advanced student. My teacher, Dawn, told my mom I would be graduating early so I could begin my racing career!

I went to Tampa Bay Downs where I met my trainer, Kent Sweezey. Track life is harder and stricter than school, but I have been training for this!

I didn't get off to a good start and looked forward to going home to New Jersey. At Monmouth Park, I got to be with my human mom and dad more - which meant plenty of snacks!

My parents told me I had to decide on an aftercare I would run and earn for. After thinking long and hard, I decided on the Grayson-Jockey Club Research Foundation because healthy horses are happy horses!

During my race career, I started 9 times and won 2 races and contributed to Grayson-Jockey Club Research Foundation for each race!

I had to hang up my racing shoes. I have the legs of a dancer and didn't want racing to take a toll on them. I don't mind though - I can now focus on being a showgirl!
