Alderman Hill made a motion to Authorize and Approve request to extend a TIF agreement between the City of Vienna and C&K Equipment & Auto Sales, LLC for business expansion at the location of 1004 West Vine St. The agreement would be extended to June 14, 2022. Alderman Owen seconded the motion. All in favor, motion carried.

PUBLIC COMMENT None

ELECTED/APPOINTED OFFICIALS

Rick Abell, City Attorney questioned what next step the city wanted to take after reviewing past due fire call invoices. Brief discussion was had on filing for small claims court as a third notice had already been sent by the city.

Alderman Hill questioned city attorneys on imposing a camping tax for Shawnee Forest Campground as discussed at prior meetings. Abell questioned council on background information of the lift station project to service the campground. Abell would follow up with more information for council.

Alderman Racey commented on Johnson County 2000 clearing the industrial park along 146 East. Racey requested Supt. Racey to bushhog banks in the spring.

Alderman Pitts commented on the new trash can ordinance passed at the previous meeting. Residents leaving their cans at the road after pickup over a 24-hour period would receive a verbal warning of the new ordinance.

Alderman Moore announced that the Johnson County Elks had disbanded saying she would like to coordinate the annual easter egg hunt at the city park. Moore said she would like to incorporate a handicapped hunt to start an hour early and would contact Kingdom Beats for entertainment. Moore requested use of the park from 9:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. on April 16, 2022.

Moore and Hill mentioned the city taking over the annual fall fest previously hosted by the Elks. Discussion was had to possibly move the event to September for better weather.

Moore also commented on continued theft at the new bathroom facilities at the city park. Penrod mentioned additional surveillance cameras being installed outside of the facility.

Alderman Owen mentioned the city treasurer also participating in a zoom emergency management table top exercise hosted by Southern Seven Health Department on February 17th as part of the meeting would be financial information.

Mayor Penrod said the old city hall building project was on hold due to garage doors being on back order until late March. Penrod also mentioned to council that public works had painted the kitchen walls in city hall to get an idea of a color for the remainder of the office.

As there was no further business to discuss, Alderman Owen made a motion to adjourn seconded by Alderman Racey.

Mayor Penrod declared the meeting adjourned at 7:28 p.m.

For APPROVAL: February 2, 2022

Steve Penrod, Mayor

Aleatha Wright, City Clerk
