

SUNDAY MORNING MEDITATION

John Wesley wrote, "We have but one point in view; to be *altogether Christians, scriptural, rational Christians." He resolved to be altogether Christian himself and to press others to be the same. He believed his mission was to comfort the afflicted, and to afflict the comfortable. Paul said, "Test yourselves to see if you are in the faith. Test yourselves! Do you not realize that Christ is in you—unless, indeed, you fail to meet the test" (II Cor. 13:5). Not all who occupy pews, sing hymns, and pray would pass the test of having Christ living in them. Wesley realized that if we preach radical discipleship and insist on a high, holy standard for all Christians, not only the world, but the "almost Christians" will strongly oppose us. "All who want to live a godly life in Christ will be persecuted (II Tim. 3:12)," sometimes even by other believers. All for Jesus, Richard
