Area Attractions

Cabela's

Cabela's Buda, Texas Retail Store is located just off I-35 between Austin and San Antonio. In addition to offering quality outdoor merchandise, the 185,000 sq. ft. showroom is an educational and entertainment attraction, featuring a décor of museum-quality animal displays, huge aquariums and trophy animals interacting in realistic re-creations of their natural habitats. See more at www.cabelas.com/Buda-TX.

San Marcos Outlet Malls

The San Marcos Outlet Malls are two distinct retail centers: Premium Outlets and Tanger Factory Outlets and are located on Interstate Highway 35 in San Marcos. Combined, the two adjacent malls have more than 350 stores, and an excess of 1,000,000 sq ft of shopping. During peak seasons, shoppers at the malls can reach numbers that effectively triple the population of San Marcos. The outlet malls in San Marcos are one of the top tourist attractions in the state.

Gruene Hall

Gruene Hall, built in 1878, is Texas' oldest continually operating and most famous dance hall, located just a boot-scoot down the road near New Braunfels. See what is happening at gruenehall.com

Texas State Capitol

The Texas State Capitol, located in Downtown Austin, is the fourth building to house the state government of Texas. The capitol building contains the chambers of the Texas Legislature and the office of the governor. Originally designed in 1881 by architect Elijah E. Myers, it was constructed from 1882 to 1888 under the direction of civil engineer Reuben Lindsay Walker. A $75 million underground extension was completed in 1993. The building was added to the National Register of Historic Places in 1970 and recognized as a National Historic Landmark in 1986. Tour details
