

MATTERS NOT SUBJECT to PROTEST

The soundness of a mule, when determined by an official veterinarian, D.Q.P., or by a Judge, is not subject to Protest.

A Judges decision, representing an individual preference, is not subject to Protest unless it is alleged to be in violation of the Rules.

The decision of the D.Q.P. and the Judges are final.