Joint Committee Of Dorval Associations Re-Activated At Pratt's Request

The Joint Committee of Dorval Associations has been reactivated under the chairmanship of W.H. Pike following a recent request from Mayor R. John Pratt. The main purpose of this group will be as in the past, to report in an unbiased manner, information of importance concerning activities within the city council to all citizens of Dorval through their Associations.

A committee was set up composed of one member from the Chamber of Commerce, one from the Junior Chamber of Commerce, one each from a French speaking and English speaking organization and the chairman to formulate the organization's programme for the coming year. This committee will meet on Thursday evening and report back to the next meeting of the group this coming Saturday morning at 10:35 A.M. in the PBCA Hall on Station Road.

"It must be pointed out," said Mr. Pike, "that the Joint Committee of Associations is a representative body composed of members from all the local registered groups and associations in Dorval. It is not concerned with politics but rather to make sure that pertinent information from our city council is passed on to all associations in an unbiased manner.

"It has been decided that since the Joint Committee was to be reactivated it is a MUST that every association be responsible for appointing two members to serve on its behalf. It will also be the responsibility of these two members to make certain replacements are found from within their organization should they be unable to attend the meetings."

It was decided at Saturday's meeting that representatives from the Joint Committee of Associations would attend all future council meetings, both open and closed sessions, and report back to the group.

"All information of a personal or confidential nature, however, would be treated as such," concluded Mr. Pike.

In making his recommendation to Mr. Pike to re-constitute the Joint Committee, Mayor Pratt wrote in part, as follows:

"I, personally, feel very strongly that a great deal of misinformation and rumour could be prevented if the representatives of the many citizens' associations were willing to take on this rather boring job of observing the despatch of their business by Council. However, if the citizens cannot find the time to do this, I will think that they can be of great assistance in examining matters which sometimes reach a point of critical controversy due to biased opinions and rumours."

"Such an unfortunate occasion seems to have arisen through the current situation in regard to the Police and Fire Department, and I am therefore requesting you to consider the reactivation of your Joint Committee so that they may have the opportunity to study all the facts involved in the improvement of our fire and police services, including the choice of any additional equipment which may be necessary."

MEMBERS OF THE Strathmore Pee Wee Larks chair quarterback Cameron Clarke who raced 80 yards for that important first touchdown in their defeat of the Staten Island Giants last Saturday.

DORVAL HAILS INTERNATIONAL PEE WEE CHAMPS

A happy reception late Sunday evening at Courtland Park School marked the arrival of the Strathmore Larks, Pee Wee gridgers who were returning home after a 19-5 victory over the Staten Island Giants in the first international series of the Pop Warner Liberty Bowl Game. Pro-Mayor E. S. Braddell Aldermen Mrs. Hazel Ballantyne and G. Goodale, along with L. Hackett, President of the Strathmore Community Association, gathered with proud parents to greet the team members.

Quarterback Cameron Clarke of the Strathmore team opened the scoring in the first half when he took the ball for an 80 yard run through center on a keeper play. Giants evened the score at 6-6 in the second quarter. In the third quarter the play was scoreless, but Strathmore tallied again early in the fourth when Richard Hughes connected for a T. D. on a line plunge. Hughes also booted the convert.

The clincher was scored by Doug Clarke on a pass interception with less than two minutes left in the game. Robert Thomas, Wayne Gilmour and Terry McQueston starred on defence for the Strathmore team which is coached by Pete Dawson.

The other Montreal area team entered in the contest, the Cote St. Paul-Ville Emard Mounties, dropped a well-fought game to North Shore champions, the Chinatown Dragons by a score of 20-12.

The Conference, named after Glenn S. (Pop) Warner, famous college coach and inventor of modern football is to the Gridiron what Little League is to the Diamond. Bowl Games arranged by the Conference are not primarily athletic contests, but rather youth festivals.

The idea is to bring together, for the purpose of understanding and fellowship, kids from two widely separated towns and, in the case of the International Series, youngsters from Canada and the U.S. The age group is 9-13.

The first official endorsement of pee wee football in the States is generally accredited to the North-east Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce which organized the first Pop Warner Conference back in 1930. Today, more than 300 towns and cities in the U.S. and Canada are represented by thousands of eager young gridgers, and it is anticipated that the International Bowl Game will become a regular annual affair.

LICENCES SUBJECT OF PROTESTS

A letter received by City Council of Dorval from the Mirdale Community Association protesting the possibility of a tavern or grill being licenced to operate on Dorval Avenue is being forwarded to the proper authorities in Quebec for their consideration.

The location of the tavern is rumored to be in the commercial building on the east side of Dorval Avenue across from Steinberg's. The east side of Dorval Avenue is presently zoned Commercial Class I, and the opening of a tavern there would contravene the by-law as taverns fall under Commercial Class II. Apparently, however, the transfer or granting of a liquor permit by the senior provincial government can override municipal levels. Another example of this is the recent granting of a liquor permit to the Pine Beach Hotel which is in a Residential Class A zone.

In this latter connection, a letter of protest has been written, at request of Council, by City Manager R. LeBlanc to the Quebec Liquor Commission. Readers will recall that Council had already once opposed granting a licence to said hotel because of the residential zone and because citizens in the area were generally against the idea. The Council's view was and is that liquor licences should only be given consideration for establishments located in appropriately zoned commercial areas.

However, just prior to the provincial elections this year, a licence was finally given the Pine Beach Hotel by the Q.L.C. despite the earlier objections of Dorval councillors. It was then revoked very shortly thereafter following a report by provincial police that people under age were being served. Just recently, the same licence was reinstated and is now once again being protested.

It would appear that decisions regarding liquor permits are made and made at the provincial level only and until machinery is set up by this province (as it is in Ontario) to thoroughly investigate with the municipalities all aspects of liquor licence applications and transfers before they are granted, city councils and local residents affected will have to be extremely vigilant and vigorous in protesting orders of the Q.L.C. which go against the majority wish of the local taxpayers.

Petition Ready For Courts

It is expected that the Judge-in-Chief of the Montreal District will appoint a judge this coming Monday to hear the case revolving around the City of Dorval's recommended dismissal of Chief A. Noel.

The formal petition to the courts which has been prepared by the City's Legal Advisor, Guy Payer, Q.C., is being placed before City Council tomorrow night, Friday, October 21st, for their scrutiny and general approval. Assuming endorsement by the councillors, the resolution will then be processed directly to the courts through Mr. Payer.

BEFORE OPENING an account, I would like to see your annual statement.

John Pratt says

The electors for Jacques Cartier-LaSalle have probably read with great interest of the many changes and switches which have been made in the federal Cabinet last week. The average age of members of the new Cabinet is considerably lower than previously and the senior member in years is now the Prime Minister himself. This Cabinet is also younger than the previous Liberal Cabinet which served prior to the 1957 elections.

The change which is most likely to affect our particular County is the switching of the Honourable George Hees to Trade and Commerce, and his replacement as Minister of Transport by the Honourable Léon Balcer. Most of the local problems are problems of transport due to the fact that our County of Jacques Cartier-LaSalle is the home of the principal airport in Canada, the principal marshalling yards of the two great railroads, and it has also become a very important centre for the trucking industry, which has large installations in the Cote de Liesse area and, more recently, in the City of LaSalle.

The Honourable Léon Balcer may not be as familiar to local residents as the jovial Mr. Hees, but Mr. Balcer will certainly bring a background of hard work and sincere effort to his new task. As most of my correspondence and negotiations have been with Mr. Hees, I shall miss his genial attitude in tackling the many problems I brought to him but I shall also look forward to working with Mr. Balcer, whom I have known for some time and with whom I have always had the most cordial relations.

Following is the text of a broadcast by Mayor John Pratt last Sunday over radio station CFOX.

Motorists who drive along Cardinal Avenue on their way to and from work may have been rather puzzled recently as to the purpose of an enormous circular concrete structure being erected on a corner of our municipal golf course.

Residents of Dorval will be happy to know that this is the new one-and-a-half million gallon storage tank for our water department. This new facility is designed to lessen the burden at peak periods of consumption and also give us better equalization of pressure, as well as a large reserve to draw upon in case of a serious fire.

This large monolithic concrete structure is much cheaper than a similar one in metal and also has the advantage, to my mind of being handsomer.

It is hoped that it will now be possible to relax somewhat the stringent regulations in regard to the watering of laws, although residents will still be required to exercise common sense and self-control in this regard. In fact, with the proper cooperation of all citizens it may be possible to abolish completely the control of watering on specific days which has been necessary in the past and which does constitute something of a nuisance to people who find themselves continually wanting to water their dry lawns on the wrong day.

Letters To The Editor

The Editor,
Dorval Reporter.

I am at a loss to hear the way city council has voted to oust our Police and Fire director A. B. Noel.

I am a resident of Dorval for many years and I know Chief Noel personally, and I know him to be an honest and true person and he always has given Dorval excellent service.

The reason given by city council and published in many newspapers is not just cause for dismissal and I think Chief Noel should be re-instated.

Chief Noel is well liked by most of the citizens of Dorval and I do not believe he went over the heads of city council.

CHURCH LAYMEN TO HOLD CONFERENCE

Over 100 laymen of the United Church of Canada will gather together at Cedar Park United Church to discuss the organizing of lay work in their church on Oct. 29. The theme for this Conference will be "Christian Laymen in Action." The afternoon sessions will be held in smaller workshop groups to enable the delegates to concentrate the discussion in their own particular field of work. After dinner Rev. P. W. Jones, minister of Dorval United Church and Honorary President of the Lakeshore District Council of United Church AOTS Men's Clubs, will address the gathering. Lunch and dinner will be served to the delegates by the Cedar Park Women's Auxiliary.

This conference is open to all men of the United Church in the Montreal-Ottawa Conference.

I think the decision Chief Noel made towards purchasing fire equipment was a just one, after all it isn't the city council who will climb on these ladders.

What does city council know about fire equipment? Chief Noel with 13 years as a police and fire director is the person who can tell when fire equipment is good or bad, not city council.

Chief Noel deserves to be re-instated and I hope he does return to duty soon.

Let me say it again I am at a loss to hear the way city council has conducted themselves in this case. It is a disgrace to our community.

Yours truly,
Allan Joseph Lyman.

Can War Be Abolished In Our Time?

Can war be abolished in our time? This is the most important question we can ask. If war cannot be abolished there will be little future for the youth of today. But if it can, great new possibilities will open up.

This question will be debated at the next meeting of the Lakeshore Forum on Tuesday, October 25, by a distinguished panel under the chairmanship of Professor D. L. Mordell, Dean of Engineering at McGill University.

Arguing that war can — and must — be abolished in our time will be Dr. Pierre Dansereau, Dean of Science at the University of Montreal and often described as Canada's best educated man. Whether or not that is an exaggeration, he has a most impressive list of degrees, including doctorates from three universities. A Guggenheim fellow and a Fellow of the Royal Society of Canada, he has lectured or conducted scientific research on every continent but Asia and has held office in many learned organizations.

Nor are Dr. Dansereau's interests confined to science. Ever since his student days at the University of Montreal he has been active in public affairs. He is a past president of the Quebec Association for Adult Education, and of Rassemblement, a democratic education movement.

That war cannot be abolished in our time will be argued by Lieutenant-Colonel George R. Stevens, O.B.E. A military historian, lecturer and film-maker, Col. Stevens served in both world wars, emerging from the second with an O.B.E. and the permanent rank of lieutenant-colonel.

He, too, has a broad and varied background. A native Scotch and a graduate of Nova Scotia and Alberta, he has served as Canadian trade commissioner in the Caribbean, South America, South Africa and Australia. He left the Canadian government service in 1935 to become a director of companies in South Africa, then shifted to public relations officer for the International Tea Board in London, which loaned him to the Indian Army in 1942.

Since 1948 Col. Stevens has undertaken private commissions and free-lanced in writing, lecturing, film-making and radio broadcasting. He has published 16 books in all, as well as producing five documentary films and lecturing under the auspices of such organizations as the East India Association, London; the Royal Society of South Africa; the Harvard School of Business Administration in the U.S. and the Canadian Club and Rotary Club in Canada.

These two men have diametrically opposed viewpoints on the possibility of war being abolished — as they have on most things. They will both dig deep to bolster their bases when they appear at the Lakeshore Forum next Tuesday. The time is 8:30 p.m. sharp, and the place is the Unitarian Hall at 15 Cedar Avenue, Pointe Claire.

Everyone interested is invited to attend this open meeting and take part in the discussion that will follow the panel presentations, and in the coffee period.

CFOX To Request Power Increase

Gord Sinclair, Manager of CFOX today announced that the station will apply to the Board of Broadcast Governors at its next meeting, November 29th, for an increase in power to 5000 watts.

Mr. Sinclair said, "The increase in power is necessary in order to better serve the 150,000 people who live in the area from Montreal to Hudson and from Chateauguay to the back river."

Some CFOX listeners have complained that the station often fades in volume, particularly at night, in areas of the outlying Lakeshore District. The station management reiterated that they intend to serve the Lakeshore area, and that the requested extra power would be used only to better serve its present listeners.

Airport to open Dec 15

Montreal multi-million airport at Dorval will be officially opened for operations Dec. 15, Transport Minister Hees announced Friday last in Ottawa.

The general public will be invited to inspect the new building two days later, Dec. 17, a Saturday.

Sections of the building, which the Transport Department says is the world's largest international air terminal, are already being used by various departmental agencies.

Air traffic control, the meteorological branch and the tele-communications and electronics branch have been carrying on their activities in the building for some time.

Further Transport Department and other aviation services are moving into their new quarters as they become available. The building will be ready for occupancy November 15th.

Mr. Hees will perform the official opening ceremony. Attending will be federal members and senators from the Montreal area, local public officials and businessmen, representatives of foreign countries, leading aviation officials from Canadian and foreign airlines and international aviation organizations.

By K. M.

MISS JACQUELINE SHIPTON, graduate of St. Stephen High School, Dorval, now attending Marionopolis College, was one of the six girls representing Canada at the Girl Guide Cabana in Mexico. Jacqueline is a Sea Ranger with the S.R.S. Skeena. The symbol on the left is one which she brought back from the Cabana in Cuernavaca, Mexico. The tree is the type which grows in the village; the heavy roots are symbolic of the deep roots of Guiding; the trunk, of strength of Guiding all over the world, the green is for growth, and the water drop, the extra spark of enthusiasm which keeps it growing.

Jacqueline returned with many souvenirs from Mexico, and from Guides from other countries who were guests at the Cabana. Our representative from Dorval made the best possible study of the country and its ways in her two weeks, and Guides and Brownies will profit from her experience as she is able to convey these vivid impressions. She has slides, pictures, samples of native art and handicrafts, jewellery and toys to illustrate a very interesting talk on Mexico.

Things which interested me — a beautiful waterproof wooden salad bowl in delicate curved shape, ceramic dishes with primitive design, shopping bags made from the threads of the cactus plant, silver jewellery, sombreros and masks, Jacqueline brought back a long thread with the pointed "needle" of the cactus attached to illustrate how fibres are taken from the plants, and used for so many native products. In Mexico, City she remarked on the art with Moorish influence, the hovels and grass huts in the slums, the superstitious nature of many of Mexicans, the aftermath of a recent earthquake, the flower markets, and the enthusiasm for celebration.

EXPERIENCES WITH UNICEF We will be hearing much about giving money for UNICEF during the end of October when the Halloween campaign is on. During Miss Shipton's stay in Mexico the Guides participated for the first time in the UNICEF work being done in Cuernavaca, and brings back first hand impressions of the slow miracles being accomplished with the people there.

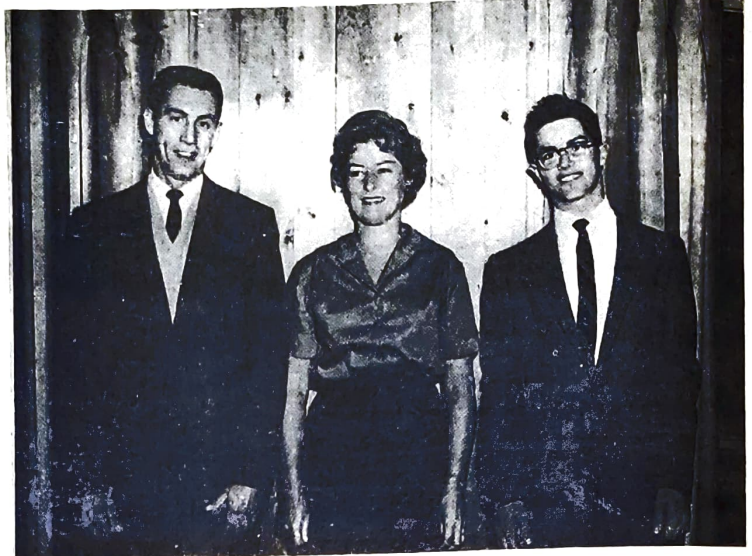

This village was chosen because it had the highest criminal rate in all of Mexico. There was a great lack here of attention to the education and occupation of children and young people. UNICEF projects underway include school, health instruction (Much of this is taught in story form by puppets), farming and small industry. In order for UNICEF to go into a country, this help must be requested, the country involved must pay a share of the money involved, and the people in the country must participate. The Guides assisted at the serving of breakfast to a number of children in the big community hall. This is done each day, and for the children it means their main meal of the day. Women from the village take turns preparing it and at the same time learn lessons in cleanliness, nutrition, housekeeping and care of children. Men and boys often crowd at the windows, watching, remarking on the food and the manners taught to the children.

Jacqueline saw the school which has been renovated with the help of UNICEF, a big plain building built around a court and an open-air stage. Even now many children cannot attend because they are too poor to buy paper. Through an interpreter, she gave a talk about Canada, and played a game with the children. The Guides organized a Field Meet in which all the people of the village participated with races, games, prizes. Girls from eleven countries did national dances and the Mexicans performed two dances. When the Guides left this village where ordinarily they are just visitors at a "camp", the Cabana, they had become a part of the village UNICEF project, had entered into the life of the people. As they left the Cabana they were given a sentimental farewell with the villagers lined up along the street, clapping and waving. This unique experience with Guiding in other countries, combined with a first hand look at the work of UNICEF, was well delegated. Miss Shipton deserved this opportunity, and others will profit by her experience in Mexico.

LADY AT WORK If you are acquainted with Dorval Civic Library you will recognize Anne Inchance, Librarian at work. You may not recognize the location. This is a behind the scenes spot in the library, a storeroom which holds books waiting to be catalogued, donated books to be sorted. This room signals the need for a larger library accommodation, and this is a problem the city is working on now. The Dorval Civic Library has had an amazing story of expansion since it started with a small convership within the Catholic Women's League. Taken over by the City two years ago the library is attractive, modern, and still growing. Get acquainted with the good books in the library at 40 Martin Street — and help it grow on Tag Day, Oct. 22.

Little League Award Night

Little League Players, Coaches, Managers, Directors, Umpires, and the Lions Club all received due tribute at a well attended award night last Friday. The coveted trophies for Scheduled Games Championship and Play Off Championships were both presented to the Dodgers. Richard Hughes the player who won the three top individual player trophies batting, pitching and most valuable player trophy was unable to be present to receive his award - he was off on the New York hockey trip.

Mr. Romeo Brough acted as chairman of the evening and caught the attention of the parents and boys alike with a story which well illustrated his theory that we are all glad of time we have spent in Little League helping or playing, and we are all sorry that we did help more or play harder.

The president of the Directors, Mr. Ross Hill, was already looking forward to next year's projects. "If Little Leaguers are to go forward we must support them, all bearing in mind that we have here the common denominator of boys and baseball". Speaking on

Comment on Sports

Many people have either heard about or enjoyed Dorval's Municipal Golf Course. In either case, they will be most interested to read the following facts. It is wonderful what can be accomplished in one year. The following report has been compiled by Syd. Thomas, Director in charge of Golf Course.

As soon as the Dorval City Council learned in 1959 that Dept. of Transport taking over the upper hall of the Elmridge Golf Course above the CPR tracks, it was realized that here was another fine opportunity for the residents of Dorval to enjoy yet another form of recreation. At the City's request the Dorval Recreation Association once again came to the fore and agreed to organize and operate a Golf Course on this property.

This presented quite a sizeable task as there itself existing of 17 holes and it was necessary to organize operating facilities - maintenance equipment and operating staff.

Committees were quickly formed in the fall of 59 by D.R.A. as there was much to be done. A House committee under Mike Lacroix decided that a small clubhouse was essential and a pre-fabricated cottage was purchased and erected on the site. The Club-house facilities hall proved to be very satisfactory and have added greatly to the convenience and enjoyment of the members.

Under the able guidance of Des Monks two new greens were added. This required considerable planning and the D.R.A. are much indebted to Mr. & Mrs. Pat Fletcher and Harry Owen for the time they spent in helping to place the layout and arranging for the maintenance of the Course and setting up operating routines.

The course opened on May 11th and the two new greens were opened for play on the week-end of June 24th. We were fortunate in obtaining the service of an experienced greens-keeper and with the aid of a small staff the state of the course has been maintained to the satisfaction of all members.

Things looked black when our first greens-keeper left for a better job in mid-season but we were fortunate in finding a more than adequate replacement in Mr. George Spicer of Lachine who had been working with the New Elmridge Golf Club.

Mrs. F. Bergson of 275 Lakeshore Drive was appointed manager of the new Club in April and this in itself assured a successful year. Having 8 years experience with the Royal Montreal Club she directed such energy and efficiency to the whole operation that it was contagious to all those who were fortunate enough to work with her. She is affectionately known as Mrs. "B" by all who know her. She was ably assisted in the operation of the Club House by Ray, Mail-laux of 16 Linnet Crescent.

The Match and Handicap Committee under the able directors of Kieth MacLeau were at somewhat at a disadvantage due to all the members being new to each other and also because it was not until mid-summer that the golf operation jelled into a smooth rolling operation. In spite of this several successful events were held during the season and it is obvious that during coming season the social behalf of the Lions Club, Mr. Beck, Vice President, appealed to the boys to help with a forthcoming campaign and called for three cheers for Ross Hill. Mr. Pelon, Scout for the Dodgers, addressed the gathering in French, appealing to the Little Leaguers to work hard at school and at baseball. Tony Harkness, scouted for the Dodgers, talked to the boys and answered questions. Mayor J. Pratt and the Hon. Hazel Ballantyne assisted at the presentations. It was easy to see that the Little League season was not far behind when the coaches and umpires were called up on stage - the summer cheers and boo's were as enthusiastic as ever and multiplied by the voices of all the teams together!

Taking over the Presidency of the League Directors for next season, Mr. F. McGeachan made a strong appeal for help from parents. "You don't even have to know anything about baseball; the boys will tell you everything you need to know!"

OF BOOKS AND LIBRARIES

This Saturday is the annual campaign of the Dorval Civic Library. If you are native to any other province save Quebec, you will ask: "Why a tag day for a library?" or "Don't we pay for libraries in our taxes?" At the moment I am recalling with special envy the spanking new North York Public Library, a magnificent building, all glass and chrome and light wood, where, gloriously lighted, the thousands of books hang suspended, seemingly between earth and heaven on metal shelves. Downstairs is a gallery equipped and illuminated to house many kinds of art exhibits. The Ontario Association of Engravers and Etchers was holding fascinating exhibit while I was there. Upstairs is an adult room and a children's room, where over the week-end the circulation reaches two thousand books. A special story room adjoins the children's library where, in a miniature amphitheatre, the children sit on gaily coloured hassocks facing an immense leather mural depicting every story book character you have ever heard of. The membership fee is five cents a card for children, slightly more for adults.

We are fifty years behind the rest of Canada in our libraries. Certainly we give credit to the hard working volunteers who make our little libraries possible. We have seen them grow from even smaller beginnings and we are aware of the sacrifice and the love which goes into these efforts. But until we will realize that we must not be satisfied with anything less than a great Lakeshore Library with all the small local efforts banded together into a building and a collection of books which is worthy of the great intellectual community along our Lakeshore, our little local tag days, our telephone bridge efforts are as pitiful as they are ludicrous. Let's take a broader view in this matter of Libraries!

INTELLIGENCE FOR THE INTELLIGENSIA

Did you know —

— that Marie-Claire Blais' LA BELLE BETE will shortly be available in English translation under the title MAD SHADOWS? If you missed it because of inability to read French now is your chance to read the "most sensational book produced by French Canada in a decade."

— that the McCord Museum of McGill University, Drummond and McGregor Streets, features an exhibit called "The Gamble for Canada" which is fascinating to the younger set, especially those studying Canadian History?

— that The Oresteia of Aeschylus presented by Randolph Macon Woman's College in Greek with a chorus, music and dancers in full colour will be shown for one performance only at the Avenue Theatre Saturday, Oct. 22, at 10 a.m. Special university student's tickets will be available at the door. Proceeds from the sale of tickets which are $5.00 are for St. George's School Building Fund.

"Is there much sex in it?", he queried.

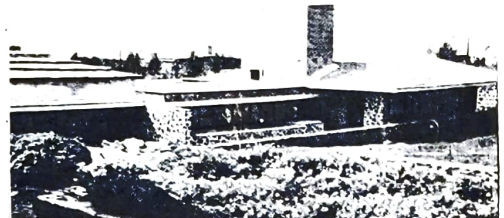

"Well, a fair amount," I mused, "at the end of the book his mother rips off her nightgown and..."

"There's your answer, then," my astute friend countered triumphantly. If you like books about Hollywood has-beens involved in scandal, suspected murder, adultery, etc. seen and told through the eyes of a decent but not too literate fifteen-year-old boy, this is for you. Personally, you can have my copy to-morrow; I'd like to get it out of the house before my eleven-year-old daughter dips into it.

I must say there are two things in its favour, the sustained, unusual style, that of the inarticulate teen-ager, and the story which is woven with considerable suspense and realism. The title is unusual and signifies optimism at its best, cloaked in a story too dirty to repeat here. Read the book and find the meaning of the title. It will amuse you!

Staff Appointments For New Hospital To Be Made From Lakeshore Doctors

Lakeshore doctors have been assured by the board of directors of the new Lakeshore General Hospital that they will be given first consideration when staff appointments are made.

This was affirmed by J. Alsdair Fraser, president of the board, and by Dr. Louis Johnson, chairman of the board's medical committee, at a meeting in the Pointe Claire city hall a few days ago, of some 40 practising physicians of the area who gathered to hear a report on the new hospital.

The doctors also heard that the Lakeshore General, when it comes into being in the autumn of 1962, will be operated primarily as a community hospital for residents on the western end of the Island of Montreal, and that it will provide the following services: medical, surgical, pediatrics, maternity X-ray and emergency. The only public hospital between Lachine and the Ontario border, it will have 150 beds.

At the request of the board of directors, the assembled doctors elected a co-ordinating committee to work with the hospital authorities on behalf of all Lakeshore physicians to establish the necessary regulations and by-laws affecting staff doctors, and to make recommendations for routine administration of the hospital. Elected were Dr. John Hay, of Pointe Claire, and Dr. Elliott Emanuel of Dorval.

It is expected that at the beginning, the hospital's permanent active medical staff will consist of 12 doctors. As soon as possible after opening, the Lakeshore General will apply for full accreditation, and in the meantime affiliation will be sought with the larger teaching hospitals in Montreal.

This latter step, it was observed by the doctors at the meeting, could lead to the appointment of interns who would specialize in general practice, and thus permit the Lakeshore General to attain the status of a teaching hospital in this vital field, which cannot be conveniently catered to by large city institutions.

High School Poster Contest

All High School students in the Lakeshore area are invited to take part in a grand poster contest sponsored by The Lachine Civic Theatre. Three grand prizes will be awarded to the winning students.

The contest is to design and letter a poster announcing the forthcoming production of Shakespeare's THE MERCHANT OF VENICE to be produced by the Civic Theatre at Lachine High School on November 17, 18 & 19th. All poster entries have to be completed by October 31st, so that they arrive at the Civic Theatre not later than November 1st 1960.

A large sheet of art paper is suggested for the poster, and there are no restrictions as to numbers of colors or sizes — though posters should not be less than 16 inches by 20 inches.

A panel of judges is being set up to assure impartiality and a high standard of artistic merit. The winner of the first prize will receive $15.00. The second prize is $10.00 and the third prize is $5.00.

All posters entered in the competition must include an original design together with the following wording:

Shakespeare's
THE MERCHANT OF VENICE

Produced by
The Lachine Civic Theatre

At
Lachine High School Auditorium
November 17, 18 & 19th at 8:30 p.m.
Matinee Sat., Nov. 19th - 2:15 p.m.
Tickets: Adults $2.00
Students $1.00
Box Office ME. 7-3498

All posters should be sent to the Lachine Civic Theatre, 3580 St. Joseph Blvd., Lachine to arrive not later than November 1st, 1960.

Students should make sure they have carefully put their names, phone number or address on their poster, also the name of their school.

hot drinks and hot sandwiches appeared as if by magic.

Late in the Year the Club Championship matches were held and the competition was very keen. The following champions for 1960 were declared: Ladies - Mrs. DeBellefeuille; Men Class A. Reg. Grigg; Class B. Ron Harper; Class C. J. M. Riley. Junior: Wayne Matthews.

A five year lease being purchased between the Dept. of Transport and City of Dorval. Under the terms of this lease the City can break the contract with 3 months notice. However it is the opinion of those close to the project that the City will have the use of the land for at least the five years and possibly longer. Finances this year have broken out about even in spite of the fact that 25% of the gross revenue must be paid annually to the Dept. for the use of the land. The close cooperation which has existed between City officials and D.R. A. has been a major factor in making the golf course a success.

All the members are already working forward to next year's operations - by which time the two new greens will be more mature and the whole layout will constitute one of the better nine hole courses in the area.
