

DAY PADDLES

2022

LAGERMAN RESERVOIR APRIL 9

Gregg Goodrich joined paddle organizers Anne Fiore and Gary Cage at Lagerman Reservoir, southwest of Longmont.

Gregg and Gary

Gregg

The day was partly cloudy, in the low 60s and calm, but the wind came up around noon, as it usually does in Colorado.

Lagerman's a small pond, but it has a bathroom and plenty of parking, and they saw more than two dozen species of birds.

Gregg's List:

Canada Goose
Northern Shoveler
Gadwall
American Wigeon
Mallard
Green-winged Teal
Canvasback

Redhead
Bufflehead
Ruddy Duck
Horned Grebe
American Coot
American Avocet
Killdeer

Baird's Sandpiper
Greater Yellowlegs
Great Blue Heron
Osprey
Bald Eagle
Red-tailed Hawk
Say's Phoebe

American Robin
Western Meadowlark
Red-winged Blackbird
Common Grackle
Greater/Lesser Scaup

Anne, in her new Delta 15

Female and male Green-winged Teal

American Avocet
in breeding plumage

Photos by Anne and Gregg