Deep Thoughts

By Jerry Silvestro

Hi Friends and Neighbors,

Happy New Year! It's the time for a new beginning. Reset the clock. Turn the page. Erase the slate and all the other metaphors that apply to flushing 2020 down the toilet. This is the day that we set down a list of goals, improvements, etc. in order to attempt to improve the quality of our lives. This is the time for our New Year's Resolutions!

Normally, these resolutions are toast, by oh, the third week in January but I feel very comfortable in saying that this year's list will last all year and beyond.

First of all, I will never cover my face again. Not with a Halloween mask. Not with a scarf. Not with a handkerchief. I don't care if it's fifty below while I'm sitting outside for a Brown's game. If I were to become a neurosurgeon in my next life, I will do it with my pearly whites showing.

I promise I will get as physically close to people as possible. I will give piggyback rides. I will sit on the lap of complete strangers. I will Jello wrestle. I will never say the words "Social" and "Distance" together ever again.

I have decided to never wash my hands again. Not for 60 seconds. Not for 10 seconds.

All my gloves are getting thrown out. That includes golf gloves, oven mitts, baseball gloves or any other material that interferes with putting skin on skin.

I'm going to buy season tickets to every sports team in Northeast Ohio and attend every game even if I hate the sport. Every live concert and Broadway show will have me in attendance.

Carryout food will be a thing of the past in my new life. I may even opt for buffets only to insure the most people touch, squeeze, cough or sneeze on my food.

When I go out to the gym, I will only use the most popular equipment. The more people that have sweat all over it, the better.

And I'm going to stay out past 10 PM drinking and carousing while mingling with other people. In fact, I may not get out until after 10 PM just to be daring.

Granted, I may not be allowed to do these things immediately but when King Michael deigns to be benevolent, then "Katie Bar the Door!"

Take the Trivia Challenge

Each month we'll give you a new trivia question. Bring or mail in your entry. The first 10 people to answer correctly will be in the drawing to win a dinner certificate worth $15.00. December's winner is Gary Radatz who knew that Christmas Block is another name for Yulelog. He has received a $15.00 Gift Certificate.

This food item is named after the Italian word for "slipper".

1. Ciabatta
2. Canape
3. Ceviche
4. Cannelloni
