Cascade Lodge was established in 1939 as a summer vacation Lodge, by Captain Ernest Knuth and his wife Paula. Mr. Knuth was of Danish Nobility who earned his captain's license from the Danish Nautical Academy. The pre-revolutionary farmhouse has had many additions, with glass windows, which are now the present structure. The ambience boasts of fireplaces, and a spectacular view over looking the trout ponds, meadows, and hillside, while horses and deer graze unaware. Tableside cooking in an elegant, homey atmosphere make Cascade Lodge one of the finest dining places in Bucks County. The Cascade Lodge is still owned and operated by the Knuth family. Cascade Lodge 5065 Lehnenberg Road Kintnersville, Pa. 18930 610-346-7484
