

Edwards, Bonnie

Bonnie Edwards, 63, resident of Bad Axe, passed away unexpectedly at her home Tuesday, Oct. 20, 2009.

Bonnie Lou was born Aug. 4, 1946 in Bad Axe to June (Duerr) and the late Minor "Goose" Edwards.

She grew up in Bad Axe, playing the bagpipes and playing the clarinet in the High School Band. She graduated from Bad Axe High School and Saginaw Business College. She attended First Presbyterian Church of Saginaw and was a member of the Bad Axe First Presbyterian Church. Bonnie worked in accounts payable for Wilson Engineering and then for Baker Perkins until retiring in 2004. She loved her family, especially her nieces Juliene and Jillene Edwards, her dog Reese, bowling and doing arts and crafts. She was an avid Red Wings and NASCAR Racing fan. She is survived by her mother, June Edwards of Bad Axe; one brother, Randy Edwards and special friend, Carol Napolitano of Utica; two nieces, Julie and Jill Edwards of Royal Oak; three aunts, Elva Heyd of Baldwin, Marie Edwards of Flushing and Carol Essenmacher of Vassar; uncle, Larry Essenmacher of Vassar.

She was preceded in death by a son, Robert Daniel Edwards, age 2 months; and her father Glen Edwards.

Services will be conducted at 11 a.m. Friday, Oct. 23, 2009, at the First Presbyterian Church in Bad Axe. Officiating will be the Rev. Jan Dykshoorn, pastor.

Visitation will be from 9 to 11 a.m. Friday at the First Presbyterian Church.

Memorials may be offered to the Bad Axe First Presbyterian Church or the American Diabetes Association.
