The River Falls Public Library provides meeting room space for Library programs. When not in use for library activities, the rooms are made available for other meetings and programs of an informational, educational, cultural, or civic nature. Rooms may not be used by organizations for commercial purposes or for private social events for individuals.

The River Falls Public Library subscribes to the principles set forth in the ALA Library Bill of Rights: "Libraries which make exhibit spaces and meeting rooms available to the public they serve should make such facilities available on an equitable basis, regardless of the beliefs or affiliations of individuals or groups requesting their use."

Use of the meeting room does not constitute Library endorsement of the activities, purposes or viewpoints expressed by the groups or individuals involved.

RULES FOR USE

1. Meeting rooms will be available for use only during the hours the library is open or when staff is available during closed hours. 8:00 a.m.-9:15 p.m. Monday through Thursday, and during library hours Friday, Saturday and Sunday.
2. Rooms are available to non-profit organizations for educational, cultural and other meetings of interest to the general public.
3. For-profit organizations may use the rooms for staff training, interviewing, and staff activities, and for public information, but not for sales, recruitment, or solicitation.

4. The community room is designed for changing events open to diverse groups and cannot be reserved exclusively for long-term exhibition or display. Approval is granted only for a single meeting or a brief series of meetings. Rooms are not intended for a group's regular meeting place.
5. Space must be reserved seven (7) days in advance. Shorter notice will be given consideration depending on availability and staff.
6. All programs must be appropriate to the facilities and should not be disruptive to library functions.
7. Minors (under eighteen years of age) must have the meeting room application signed by a sponsoring adult who must also be present at the meeting.
8. There will be a flat fee of $25.00 for use of the space. The only exceptions are library-sponsored programs.
9. Organizations may charge a cost recovery fee for their programs, such as hand-outs, etc. At no time will the library staff be involved in the collection of such fees.
10. Food and non-alcoholic beverages may be served with prior approval. Kitchen facilities do not accommodate cooking. A request for use of the kitchen must be made at the time meeting room is reserved.
11. Tobacco and alcohol are forbidden.
12. Neither the Library Board of Trustees nor River Falls Public Library or City of River Falls is responsible for accidents, injury or loss while using the meeting rooms.
13. Sponsoring group accepts responsibility for set-up and take-down of chairs, tables, and general clean-up (chairs stacked; tables wiped off, folded and stored; all trash in waste baskets; kitchen cleaned if used; tables wiped down.) Cleaning supplies are available in the table closet. Failure to do so will result in forfeiture of deposit.
14. Library staff will not accept calls or relay messages for people attending meetings except in emergencies.
15. No tape or tacks may be used on the walls. Doing so will result in loss of deposit.
16. No animals will be allowed in the library without permission.
17. Specific rules governing the meeting rooms are established by the Library Board and are supervised by the Library Director.
18. Staff reserves the right to monitor activities at all times.

DAMAGES AND LIABILITY

Each individual, group, or organization assumes the full responsibility for any damages incurred resulting from the use of meeting room facilities. A damage deposit of $50 per meeting room use is required at the time of reservation. If no damage has been noted, the deposit will be refunded by mail. However, if damage is noted, the damage deposit will be forfeited, and any additional costs to repair damage will be charged to the sponsoring organization. Those groups or individuals who have been assessed damages and who have reserved the room for more than one usage, will be required to forfeit the original deposit, and re-submit another deposit to resume use of the Meeting Room. Abuse of the facilities will be sufficient cause to deny further use of the room. The Library is not responsible for the loss of or damage to any equipment or materials owned or rented by an individual, group or organization using its meeting room.

Any individuals, groups, or organizations holding a meeting in the Library must fully release and discharge the River Falls Public Library, the Library Board of Trustees, the City of River Falls, its officers, agents and employees from any and all claims from injuries, damages or loss, which may arise or which may be alleged to have arisen out of, or in connection with the meeting.
