

“We’re talking about providing care for our loved ones, not numbers on a balance sheet,” Sauer and Vander Meer stated. “Our members are caring for individuals whom government has declared eligible for Medicaid and we’re now saying it’s time for government to accept its responsibility and pay for that care.”

SOURCES:

Report on Shortfalls in Medicaid Funding for Nursing Center Care, AHCA

Wisconsin Nursing Home Medicaid Losses and Fact Sheet, LeadingAge Wisconsin

The Wisconsin Health Care Association (www.whcawical.org) and LeadingAge Wisconsin (www.LeadinAgeWI.org) are the trade associations for the long-term care provider community and together represent virtually all Wisconsin skilled nursing facilities.

###