WELCOME / ANNOUNCEMENTS

PASSING THE PEACE

THE WORD

Responsive Reading Psalm 138 (NIV)

I will praise you, Lord, with all my heart; before the "gods" I will sing your praise.

I will bow down toward your holy temple and will praise your name for your unfailing love and your faithfulness, for you have so exalted your solemn decree that it surpasses your fame.

When I called, you answered me; you greatly emboldened me.

May all the kings of the earth praise you, Lord, when they hear what you have decreed.

May they sing of the ways of the Lord, for the glory of the Lord is great.

Though the Lord is exalted, he looks kindly on the lowly; the lofty, he sees them from afar.

Though I walk in the midst of trouble, you preserve my life. You stretch out your hand against the anger of my foes; with your right hand you save me.

The Lord will vindicate me; your love, Lord, endures forever!

Do not abandon the works of your hands.

World Peace

I am doing my part for world peace.

Over and over, we are told that world peace begins with peace in our hearts. That's very good news. It means I can contribute to world peace every day. I don't have to be a diplomat or high-ranking government official to play a role in moving the planet toward peace.

I only have to remember to choose peace in every situation. Peace is far more than refraining from physical violence. Peace is kinder thoughts and deeds. Peace is giving the benefit of the doubt. Peace is honesty and trust. Peace is even simple courtesy.

Each time I see the face of God in another human being and treat that person accordingly, I contribute to world peace.

And let the peace of Christ rule in you hearts, to which indeed you were called in the one body. And be thankful. -Colossians 3:15

Give me understanding, that I may keep your law and observe it with my whole heart. -Psalm 119:34

The human mind plans the way, but the Lord directs the steps. -Proverbs 16:9

For nothing will be impossible with God. – Luke 1:37
