WORSHIP AND PRAYER

Everyday Stewardship: Patience in All Things

St. Francis De Sales said, "Have patience with all things, but, first of all with yourself." Life has a way of knocking us down or off the path we are traveling. If it is a path that God has called us to, then it will be easier to get back to the journey, but nevertheless, it is difficult.

What is the Good News? God's patience is far superior to our own. We do need to follow the words above and cultivate in ourselves a greater sense of patience in all things. However, we should take great comfort in knowing that God's patience will always be there as we struggle to grow and advance in our life as a disciple.

You're trying to live a stewardship way of life but keep falling onto the side of the road? God wants you to reach Him on the road but will wait for you. You want to be holier and more committed to your faith? God will take what you give Him. The danger is when you lose your patience and stop moving toward Him. We must never cease our journey. You and I may get fed up, but our God never will.

Catechetical Sunday

The word "catechesis" means "to echo." Literally, we are to echo the good news of Jesus Christ to the world. This is not a suggestion; it is a command of our Lord. Some people are called and set apart in our communities as catechists, those trained and charged with passing on the Gospel to children and adults. On Catechetical Sunday, we acknowledge them and remind ourselves of the need for formation and growth in all of us. To be a catechist is a privileged calling, and today be sure to say "thank you" to one in our community.

“Do not abandon yourselves to despair. We are the Easter people and hallelujah is our song.”

Pope John Paul II It is easy in our current cultural and political climate to be drawn into the cares, concerns, and battles of the world. Often, despair seems like the most appropriate response to the evil that we see advancing against us. We usually bring that feeling of despair and weariness from a long week with us to Mass. Our hope and faith are fragile and easily shaken, but Pope John Paul II gives us the remedy to this despair that hovers over us like a cloud. The praise of God! As we know, our praise of God is not for God’s benefit, but for our good. When we praise God, even in the midst of our struggles and trials, it turns our hearts toward Him like flowers toward the sunlight; then we are able to show the beauty of God to the world. So let us never grow tired of praising God, in the good times and especially in the bad.

Diocesan Bites: "I shall get up and go to my father and I shall say to him,

'Father, I have sinned against heaven and against you.'"

It is important for parents to tell their children I love you! Parents nurture, protect and provide for their children during their early life, then become role models, teachers, and disciplinarians. That last role may cause a child to doubt the love of a parent. One young couple learned early in their marriage to tell their children I love you and to hug and kiss them every day. Their children learned to respond. Later, when their sons and daughters were covered with sweat or dirt after a tough game or makeup after a play or recital, they searched out their parents to hug and kiss them and say, I love you, regardless of how they performed or the outcome of the event. The parents, children, and now grandchildren, all hug and kiss and tell each other, I love you! They all know that they can go to each other, when necessary, and say, "I have sinned against heaven and against you, and I am sorry." They know they will be hugged and kissed and told I love you, no matter what they have done or failed to do. That is true stewardship of Christ-like love.
