About: CACC Summer Camp offers fun cultural experiences in an engaging learning environment. The program joins introductory language lessons (Mandarin Chinese) with diverse, hands-on, interactive activities that explore culture, science, history, geography, ecology, and the arts. The program offers campers fun and educational opportunities to share and understand connections between language and communities.

East Meets West: (July 24 – July 28)

Session 1

Go for a Ride on the Silk Road! East Meets West campers will explore the people, places, travel of goods, and the sharing of culture along the world's most famous trade route. It's a week of far away sites, exciting stories, and loaded caravans. This week features a field trip to learn about a unique topic about the Silk Road.

From Yesterday (July 30 - August 3)

Session 2

How Did They Do That ??! From Yesterday campers will learn how to find the histories of China, Delaware, and beyond in the present. We'll look for clues in language, culture, and everyday life. A pinch of science + a drop of history + a dash of archaeology = loads of fun! This week features a field trip with a living history experience.

Let the Games Begin (August 6 - August 10)

Session 3

Bring your Game Face! Let the Games Begin campers will jump into a fun and exciting world of perplexing puzzles and wacky sports! We'll try our hands at traditional sports, games, and brain teasers, and also invent our own. This week features a field trip to see both brains and brawn in action together.
