

Br-egg-fast
By Chris Minton

How would you like your eggs? he asked
I said I'd like them cooked
He thought my answer was funny
And gave me a silly look

I know you want them cooked, he said
What I really want to know
Is how you'd like me to cook them
When I put them on the stove

Hard boiled or soft boiled?
I could fry them over-easy
I could scramble them up just right
And even make them cheesy

I thought for a moment about it
Then I settled on my choice
I looked at him and answered
In my very sweetest voice

If it's not too much trouble
I'd love to have a br-egg-fast feast
Do you think that you could make for me
Exactly one of each?
