

College Rep Program

Sales Opportunity

Everyone knows that college students are always looking for a way to earn a couple of bucks, and the College Rep Program offers them a way to do that. The College Rep Program will design a website for college students that they can sell products from at their school of choice. All the college student needs to do it drive people to the website that the College Rep Program has built for them.

The website will have an extensive offering of product, from many different brands, for people to choose from. 100% of the profit generated by these sales will go to the college student. The College Rep Program will take care of all the other details including shipping, payment and website maintenance. The College Student needs to simply focus on getting people to their site, using any clever marketing they can think of.

Target Customer

The College Rep Program is for any current college student, or for anyone who does not live in the WNY area..
