12 Playoffs

- 12.1 In order to qualify to play in the MUNY-Buffalo MSBL playoffs and player must have appeared in minimum of regular season games as outlined in section 12.1.1 below. The visiting team's scorebook will act as proof. The spirit of this rule is to ensure players are committed to the league and not just a "rent a player" for the playoffs. If the president deems the spirit of the rule is not met even though a player does appear in the minimum regular season games, he may elect to ban the player from the playoffs.
 - 12.1.1 The minimum regular season games are as follows:
 - 12.1.1.1 A Position player must appear in 5 regular season games. An appearance will be credited if a position player is in the lineup for 3 defensive outs and 1 plate appearance.
 - 12.1.1.2 A Pitcher ONLY player must pitch in 3 games and face a minimum of 35 batters. Pitcher ONLY player must be declared before the start of the season or immediately when added to a roster after the start of the season. Regardless of the fact he plays another position or qualifies under rule 12.1.1.1 above, he will only be able to pitch in the playoffs. He can hit for himself when he pitches.
 - 12.1.2 If a player has a major injury and has not played in the minimum regular season games the league president may allow him to play in the playoffs, this will be decided on an individual basis. The player must appear on the final July 1 roster in order to be considered.
 - 12.1.3 In addition, a manager may request from the league President exemption if he feels a player has circumstances beyond 12.1.1 above. This will be dealt with on an individual basis. The player must appear on the final July 1 roster in order to be considered.
 - 12.1.4 All Team Managers will be exempt from minimum requirements.
