

On Monday, August 20, we'll return to the comfort of Caddy's on the Beach on Treasure Island on the Gulf.

Regrettably, no alcohol can be brought onto this beach, but it sure can be purchased there!

We've chosen this site in part because of its shallow beach, calm waters, and indoor escape from the August sun. Oh, yeah, then there's the beach.

Be lazy and rent two chairs and an umbrella set up in advance for only a $10 tip.

For an OPTIONAL trip that afternoon, we'll whisk you just 10 minutes away to The Sacred Lands ~ Part of the Jungle Prada Park.

Might he also unfortunately have unearthed the IRS on this date too?

Learn about native American archaeology, conquistadors, gangsters, and developers – with a healthy dose of peacocks for good measure! Great 1 to 1¼ hour guided tour with lots of expert storytelling. Enjoy this peaceful and shaded earthy retreat. Only $8, payable in advance.

Strut alongside 50 pretty peacocks (and their peachicks?)

The Anderson family, who bought this property in 1940, is committed to protect the Narvaez Indian mound which is the site of an ancient Tocobaga village. Artifacts found on the mound date primarily from 1300 to 1500 AD. The Anderson descendants lead the tour.

Two of many glowing reviews in Tripadvisor~

"Fabulous! Most informative tour I've taken. The scenery is spectacular and the guide is very informative."

"Who knew there was such rich local history? David Anderson is a true captivating storyteller for all ages."
