The New York Division of the IAI will be holding a one-day seminar and business meeting at St. Thomas Aquinas College, 125 Route 340, Sparkill, NY on Saturday, October 8, 2016 from 8AM-4PM.

The seminar will consist of a single series of lectures, approximately 1 hour each during the day. The Division will provide a lunch for attendees, during which we will hold our annual business meeting. If you are interested in presenting at this year's educational seminar, please submit an abstract online at: <http://www.nyiai.org/presenters.html>. The per person registration fee is $40. For those requiring lodging, a couple local options are listed here, however the Division will not be reserving a block this year.
