Bishop Barry C. Knestout's Invitation to Pray
For All Victims of Abuse at Mass Atonement

I am profoundly aware of the hurt and anger the Catholic faithful and the community at large are feeling in lifht of the recent report of abuse by Church leadership and now with the release of the Pennsylvania Grand Jury report on abuse in the Church. Those revelations further erode trust in Church leaders and in the Church as a whole. I am praying for all who have been abused.

Our Church—especially its bishops—must continually seek forgiveness for our failures from those who have suffered as a result of those failures.

Top open ourselves to the grace we need to overcome this scourge upon our Church, we must prayerfully seek healing and reconciliation with all who have been hurt. As a step in this process, I am inviting the faithful to come and pray with me for all victims of abuse at a Mass of Atonement, Friday, Sept. 14 at 7pm, at the Cathedral of the Sacred Heart, Richmond.

We will pray for all victims of abuse, express sorrow for the failure of Church leaders, seek forgiveness for our sins, and ask for the guidance of the Holy Spirit in the ongoing healing of the People of God.

During the seven months I have been bishop, I have asked for a review of the process and procedures currently in place for reporting and responding to all abuse. I am encouraged by the work of our Diocesan Review Board, a committee of lay and clergy members who have assisted our diocese for the last 16 years, in assessing accusations of child abuse and the suitability for ministry of the accused.

I am firmly committed, as Bishop of the Richmond Diocese, to addressing accusations of abuse quickly and transparently. Be assured, we will continue to make protection of the most vulnerable a priority in our parishes, schools and throughout our diocese.

Directory—Photos for the parish directory will be taken in the hall Tuesday Sept 25th from 2p—9pm. Be the first to sign-up so that you get the best time. You can sign-up either on-line at https://booknow-liftouch.appointment-plus.com/y7p68960/ during the week or in the back of the church on weekends. If you signup online you need to put the number in your party, the day, Sept 25, and the time before you can create your personal log in. Remember you will receive a free 8x10 portrait and free directory for having your picture taken. If you have a conflict on that date, please instead, send a family photo to holy_infant@verizon.net so that you are included. We would appreciate any photos of church activities to be sent to the above email so they can be included in the directory. Thank you.
