

The Historical Timeline of Danzan Ryu Jujitsu

Revised: January 23, 2015

The Historical Timeline of Danzan Ryu Jujitsu is not a copyrighted document. It is being made available free of charge to the Danzan Ryu community for historical and educational purposes. The history of Danzan Ryu does not belong to any one person. It belongs to the Danzan Ryu family – our Ohana.

All entries are based on information obtained from historical documents, newspaper articles, personal interviews, Danzan Ryu newsletters and website postings from many of the Danzan Ryu organizations.

A very special thanks goes out to Professor Mike Chubb for his assistance and with providing me with historical Danzan Ryu information he has researched and collected over the years.

Some of the Danzan Ryu Professors who provided historical information and helped with this project include:

American Jujitsu Institute

Professors Sam C. Luke, Ken Eddy and Danny Saragosa.
