

Jewett, Robert

Robert C. Jewett, 62, of Sandusky died Wednesday, March 22, 2000, at McKenzie Memorial Hospital in Sandusky. He was born Jan. 21, 1938, in Detroit, the son of the late Louis and Louise (Panck) Jewett. He lived in this area for approximately 20 years. Robert loved the outdoors, wildlife, westerns and being around people. He is survived by the mother of his children, Rosemarie Cipponeri of Sandusky; sons Michael Jewett and his wife, Kathy, of Gaylord, Robert Jewett and his wife, Stacy, of Lexington, John Jewett of Caro, Mark Jewett of Bad Axe, and Lewis Jewett of Gaylord; daughters Shelly Rogers and her husband, Jim, of Bad Axe, and Dawn Jewett of Lexington; a brother, Paul Jewett of Sandusky; a sister, Deanna Colburn of Sandusky; 23 grandchildren; and two great-grandchildren. Besides his parents, he was preceded in death by a brother, Ron; a sister, Joyce; and a grandson, Deryk Jewett. Funeral services were conducted Friday, March 24, 2000, at 1 p.m. at Marsh Funeral Chapel, Sandusky, with the Rev. Paul Castle officiating. Burial was in the Greenwood Cemetery in Sandusky. Casketbearers were David Colburn, Cory Jewett, Steven Hurley, Chad Kzinowek, Lewis Jewett and Steve Sweet. Memorials may be made to the charity of the donor's choice.