MISSION OF THE MONTH

JANUARY 2021

Ben and Tillie Yazzie

Rio Rancho, New Mexico

Missions Agency: Missions Door

Mission Focus: Ben was a teacher and leader at Indian Bible College for 13 years. He then transitioned to church planting and discipleship among the Navajo.

In Ben's virtual visit with Bethany Church, he reported that the annual Wheatfields Bible conference had to be more virtual and over the internet this year.

Ben now reports that there have been more than 18,000 visitors to the event via Facebook and YouTube. This is far more than would have been exposed to the Gospel if the conference had been done by traditional means.

Previously, Rob Hedlund told Ben about a church in Nevada on a reservation, which might be interested in Ben's services. Ben reports that he has now covered three courses with Pastor Fisher, at Pastor Fisher's request, and Pastor Fisher indicates these have been very helpful to him.

Pray for Pastor Fisher's ministry on a native reservation in Nevada. Pray for followers of Jesus to be raised up who will work with Pastor Fisher in reaching more native people.

Ben reports that he has lost two long time ministry supporters. Pray that God will raise up new interested folks to take their place in financial and prayer support.

As always, pray for wife Tillie, daughters Renata (married), Rachel (not sure if married) and Ethan (still in school) to be well and walk with God.
