Mission Statement

We, the members of Saint Benedict Parish, in union with our Pastoral staff, our Bishop, and our Holy Father, and together with the Church of Altoona-Johnstown, commit ourselves to the building up of the Kingdom of God in our personal lives, within our families, within our Faith Community, and in society as a whole. We join with one another in prayer and public worship, in the practice of gracious hospitality, and in works of charity and mutual support. Mindful of the Lord's care and loving concern for our common welfare, and with profound Faith and great hope, we strive to accomplish the tasks at hand and to meet the challenges of the future so that in all things God may be glorified.

Parish Festival

We are appealing to all of our Parishioners to help make our Parish festival the most successful ever! The weekend affair will be held on Friday, Saturday and Sunday, July 26, 27, and 28. Please keep your schedule free for these days and plan to volunteer to work at one of our many booths or the Sunday dinner.

We will also need assistance with food preparation. If you are able to assist with making haluski and stuffed cabbage for the ethnic booth, please contact Martha Swarden at 344-8957; or with trimming chicken (on Friday July 26—please bring your own scissors) for the dinner, call Anna Mae Kelly at 344-8346.

Cucumbers will be needed the week of July 21 for the Festival dinner.

Anyone wishing to do a basket for the Basket Auction please call Norma Farabaugh at 344-6356.

Business owners and managers are also asked to sponsor a sign for one of the festival booths. The price for the three-day event cannot be beat — $50-$75. Sponsoring a booth at our Festival is very important to its success. If you are interested in off-setting the expense of our booths, and are not one of our regular sponsors, please contact the Parish Office at 344-6548.

There will be No Yard Sale this year.

Pastor's Reflection

The Lord is telling us in today's Gospel that he wants us to sit and pray with Him each day. It is a wonderful practice to sit in a quiet place and allow Him to speak to us and to help us throughout our day.

Peace,

Father Jude

Families and the Gospel

July 21, Lk 10:38-42 In today's gospel Mary planned to visit with Jesus after her work was done. If Jesus were to visit your home today, what would he say distracts you from giving more attention to family and friends? (Used with permission from "A Family Perspective" by Bud Ozar)

Stewardship Reflections

Martha was too busy to recognize the importance of Jesus' presence. Mary chose to use her time to pause and listen to Him. Without spiritual nourishment our lives become unbalanced. May we learn from Mary the gift of listening and then share with "a Martha" the message of how to grow in faith and the love of Jesus.

"The Challenge, then, is to understand our role (our vocation) and to respond generously to this call from God. Christian vocation entails the practice of stewardship. In addition, Christ calls each of us to be stewards of our personal vocation, which we receive from God." (Stewardship: A Disciples' Response, U.S. Bishop's Pastoral Letter, 1992) Parish Life Office, 2019

Catholic Ministries Drive

Thank you to all parishioners who have responded to the 2019 Catholic Ministries Drive. 96 of our families have generously donated $20,967.50 toward the Parish goal of $38,128.00, leaving a balance of $17,160.50. If you did not receive a pledge card in the mail, please use the envelopes available at the Church entrances.

Ladies Retreat

Andrew Mazich, O.S.B. from the St. Vincent Archabbey, Latrobe. The Retreat is open to commuters. To reserve a place please call the Sisters of St. Ann, 814-472-9354 or email: sistersann35@gmail.com.

Adult Catechesis

Adult catechesis promotes mature adult faith: the faith of the disciple who has been saved by Christ's redemptive love and who is being continually converted to him. Adult catechesis fosters this discipleship by providing "a comprehensive and systematic presentation and exploration of the core elements of Catholic faith and practice—a complete initiation into a Catholic way of life."

From the National Directory for Catechesis

The Office of Adult Enrichment and Lay Ecclesial Ministry has announced classes for 2019-2020 which begin this fall. For class information and registration forms please visit us online at www.dioceseaj.org/lay-ecclesial-ministry/ or contact us directly at (814) 361-2000 or by email at mheinze@dioceseaj.org. All are welcome!

Seek Out Sources of Help for Grief

There are many sources of help for persons experiencing grief. When one makes the effort to seek out help in identifying these resources it will be beneficial.

Some possible resources are:

1. Books and reading materials. Almost every good book store has a section devoted to topics related to death and dying and self-help.
2. Find a local support group through your parish, hospital or area agencies.
3. Friends and relatives can become tremendous sources of help when asked.
4. Clergy, religious and other professionals. Seeking help/counseling is not a sign of weakness but a sign that one is serious about caring for oneself.
