A MESSAGE FROM WALK #149 LAY DIRECTOR

In early 2003, my wife's brother came by my house one afternoon. He was on a spiritual high that really scared me. Being some what conservative in my Christian walk, I could not understand what he was trying to tell me. He was talking about a bunch of guys hanging out, playing guitars, and singing. He said at the end everyone got up and talked. He didn't want to but they talked him into doing it anyway. He told me I needed to go. I didn't say it to him, but I thought that was a little way out for me. He died shortly after and I never got to talk to him about Emmaus anymore.

After some health issues in 2003 and 2004, I grew in my relationship with Jesus. All of a sudden people were talking to me about this thing called Emmaus. I was talking to Mark "Bubba" Carter one day and was sharing this. He asked if I wanted to go. I said "Yes.". He said "why?" I told him that I was close to Jesus after my illness, but wanted more. He said okay and I was signed up for CAEW 73 in October of 2004.

Saying I wanted more was an under statement. I received an amazing spiritual blessing. When I left, I knew I would be back. But I had no idea I would be coming back 8 years later. The agape love was just unbelievable. I wanted more.

Well, here I am 8 years later. Let me share a little of my lay director experience with you. The agape love shown when I was a pilgrim was wonderful, but the agape love shown to me the last 4 months is only a GOD THING. With sickness in my family, I really had doubts about serving on this walk, but this Emmaus community has just taken over my job and done everything for me.

I have been humbled beyond words by this action.

There will be 26 men in the conference room with the pilgrims, but the success of this walk comes from GOD and the AGAPE FAIRIES who have been working for months and will be working at Camp Alamisco this week.

DeColores and Thank You,

Waldo

Faith Triumphs

"Under hopeless circumstances he hopefully believed" (Rom. 4:18). (Weymouth)

Abraham's faith seemed to be in a thorough correspondence with the power and constant faithfulness of Jehovah. In the outward circumstances in which he was placed, he had not the greatest cause to expect the fulfillment of the promise. Yet he believed the Word of the Lord, and looked forward to the time when his seed should be as the stars of heaven for multitude.

O my soul, thou hast not one single promise only, like Abraham, but a thousand promises, and many patterns of faithful believers before thee: it behooves thee, therefore, to rely with confidence upon the Word of God. And though He delayeth His help, and the evil seemeth to grow worse and worse, be not weak, but rather strong, and rejoice, since the most glorious promises of God are generally fulfilled in such a wondrous manner that He steps forth to save us at a time when there is the least appearance of it.

He commonly brings His help in our greatest extremity, that His finger may plainly appear in our deliverance. And this method He chooses that we may not trust upon anything that we see or feel, as we are always apt to do, but only upon His bare Word, which we may depend upon in every state. --C. H. Von Bogatzky

Remember it is the very time for faith to work when sight ceases. The greater the difficulties, the easier for faith; as long as there remain certain natural prospects, faith does not get on even as easily as where natural prospects fail. -George Mueller
