

What’s Happening at GCPL

Another school year is about to end! That means we are getting close to Summer Reading at the library. Denise and Elizabeth have been busy planning wonderful programs and activities for the summer to go along with the theme of “Build a Better World.” Be sure your children and/or grandchildren sign up! Our big kick-off for Summer Reading will be Friday, June 2 with Barry the Builder at First National Bank’s Giles Heritage Theater at 10:15. Snow Bird will be visiting on Friday, June 16 also at Giles Heritage Theater at 10:15. To wrap up Summer Reading and reward all our readers that read at least ten books over the summer, we are hosting a build an ice cream treat and a movie.

Taste and Tell II is happening on Thursday, May 4 at 6:00 p.m. This was a popular event last year, so please call to make your reservation. Carolyn Harrison, Denise Grisham and Bill Rutherford will be showing us how to make some tasty salads, meals and desserts.

We have started a new program series called “Aging Gracefully.” Our first event in this series was a fashion show featuring our local women’s clothing shops. We had over thirty lovely models who did a fantastic job showcasing clothing for women that is available here in Pulaski. Our second event in this series is coming up on Wednesday, May 24, at 5:30. Fitness coach Mandy Rogers will be guiding us on fitness as we age. I believe she will have lots of good information and will show us exercises we all can do to keep ourselves aging gracefully! The next event in the series will be on Tuesday, July 25 at 5:30 titled “5 Reasons Every Woman Should Have a Will.” Our guest speaker will be Mattea Rolin from Williams Law & Mediation Group. Mark your calendar for these events. Other topics in this series are “Our Aging Brain” and “How to Declutter.” These will be scheduled later.

Our intermediate computer class, with Bo Harvey, will be taking a break for the summer. The last class before the break will be on May 10. Bo will resume the intermediate class on August 16.

We are starting a new Bridge Class on Tuesday, May 16 at 10:00. If you would like to learn to play bridge or need a refresher course in bridge, please call and sign up for the class.

Make sure you read about “Tales and Tails with Sam I Am,” a new Sunday afternoon program at the Giles County Public Library. Katie Whitfield and her certified therapy dog, Sam Houston, are taking appointments now for one-on-one interaction between your child and Sam Houston. The program will start on June 11. Call the library to reserve you and your child’s spot.

The next Tea is scheduled for Friday, August 11 at 2:00. Please mark your calendar and call the library to make your reservation. Since our teas have been so popular, we started taking reservations because of our limited space.

We are still offering resume help and tech help by appointment. The dates and times are on the calendar in this newsletter.

See the details of all the programs and special events offered for the coming months in this newsletter.

We have a great library! Thank you for keeping our circulation of materials very high and attending our library events.

Cindy Nesbitt, Director

“A library outranks any other one thing a community can do to benefit its people. It is a never failing spring in the desert.” ~ Andrew Carnegie
