

Knowing One Another

20 April 2015

Venue: Rich Mix

35-47 Bethnal Green Road,
London E1 6LA

Time: 6.30 PM

Brick Lane Circle Presents Knowing One Another Book Launch

Come and join us to pick up your FREE book, and enjoy live music, comedy and vegetarian bites from various parts of the world which has now become part of London.

The book offers a wonderful glimpse of the Eritrean, Thai, Ugandan, East African Indian, Bengali, Pashtun, Uyghur, Moroccan and the East End Jewish communities from London.

Event line up:

Comedy:
Patrick Monahan

Music:
ACD Arts - performing East African music
London Uyghur Ensemble - performing Chinese Uyghur music
South Asian Dance performance – Asa Willoughby

To book your free place, email faridha@bricklancecircle.org

Knowing One Another is a volunteer led research project by the Brick Lane Circle which aims to challenge the negative stereotypes and prejudices faced by different communities living in London. This event will celebrate the launch of the Knowing One Another publication which includes the diverse voices of London, written and compiled by volunteers.

The project is funded by the Big Lottery Fund
The event is sponsored by Rich Mix and Tower Hamlets Council

