

The “OG of the OC,” Vicki Gunvalson has appeared on The Real Housewives of Orange County since its first season 12 years ago. As a successful entrepreneur, reality star, mother and grandmother, she has redefined what it means to be a powerful modern woman.

In 2005, with the premier of The Real Housewives of Orange County”, her life moved in yet another direction. The franchise now boasts eight “housewives” shows across the county, 11 International “housewives” installments and RHOC can be seen in over 120 countries and territories around the world.

Most recently, Vicki wrapped up filming Season 13 of The Real Housewives of Orange County. She loves spending time with her boyfriend of two years Steve Lodge. The couple enjoys country music concerts and spending time with their kids and grandkids.

Vicki attributes her ambition to her DNA. “I have a fierce drive for success that I received from my parents. With the success of the show, I have newfound zest for life, more than I ever thought possible. I do believe that when one knows more, they need more.” She adds, “One lifetime is not enough for me”