Biography

Frances A. "Fran" Lewis, 75 of Bad Axe, passed away peacefully on October 23, 2021. She was born on August 21, 1946 in Bad Axe, MI to the late John and Leona (Heilig) Gleason. Fran was raised in Minden City and attended Ubly High School. She was employed at Clements Wire and Cable Company before moving to Ohio for several years. She worked as a cook for many years, both in Ohio and the Huron County Area. Later in life, she settled in Bad Axe where she was known as somewhat of a "social butterfly". She made countless friends who became family, many of whom would call her "Grandma" or "Aunt Fran". She was always up for a hug, of which she gave the best in the county, whether you were family, a friend or just someone who she felt needed one. Fran was considered a problem solver to those who knew and loved her. Fran enjoyed late nights watching reruns of bonanza and Walker Texas Ranger and traveling with her dear brother Jim. She loved visiting with everyone. Fran cherished time spent with her children and beloved grandchildren.
