Tour #17127

Aug. 26-31

1 ANN ARBOR, MICHIGAN

This morning we are greeted by our driver and tour director as we board our deluxe motorcoach to begin a delightful six-day tour to the Grand Hotel at Mackinac Island. We travel north through Lexington stopping for lunch in Florence, Kentucky. After lunch we cross the river into Ohio and continue north into Michigan to Ann Arbor, for overnight.

2 CHARLEVOIX / CASTLE FARMS TOUR / PETOSKEY TUNNEL OF TREES / CROSS VILLAGE AND LEGS INN

We depart Ann Arbor this morning traveling north through Michigan to Charlevoix, situated between Lake Michigan and the western end of Lake Charlevoix. Known as Charlevoix the Beautiful, you will be awed by the magnificent sights the area offers. Castle Farms, one of Michigan's premier historical attractions is a French Renaissance-style castle offering the perfect blend of old-world charm and modern-day elegance. We enjoy a guided tour of Charlevoix including the commonly referred to gnome homes, mushroom houses, or Hobbit houses. It's a short drive to Petoskey or Harbor Springs for the night. We travel Highway 119, better known as the Tunnel of Trees Scenic Heritage Route from Harbor Springs to Cross Village with dinner included at the Legs Inn, a unique experience. D

3 MACKINAC ISLAND / GRAND HOTEL

We depart Harbor Springs for a short drive to Mackinaw City, Michigan with time for shopping and browsing before boarding Shepler's Ferry for a brief but enjoyable 18 minute cruise across the Straits of Mackinac to the fascinating Mackinac Island for two nights at the legendary, world-famous Grand Hotel. This luxurious resort hotel, overlooking the beautiful Straits of Mackinac, is famous for its cuisine and service. Upon arrival we will enjoy their delicious grand buffet luncheon. Dress code in the evening at the Grand for both men and women. L D

4 CARRIAGE TOUR MACKINAC ISLAND

After breakfast at our leisure this morning, we will take a Carriage Tour of Mackinac Island and the State Park located on the Island. You may wish to explore the Old Fort which is within walking distance of the downtown area. Don't miss the many shops in the downtown area. Mackinac Island is famous for its Fudge, so be sure to purchase some. As you know, Mackinac Island has no motorized vehicles, and the only way to get around on the island is by horse-drawn carriage, bicycle or on foot. Don't forget the fantastic Grand Luncheon Buffet! B L D

5 DUNDEE, MICHIGAN

We will enjoy our last delicious breakfast at the Grand this morning before boarding our carriages and returning to Shepler's dock on the Island for our ferry to the little town of St. Ignace— one of the oldest cities in Michigan located on the northern end of the Mackinac Bridge. We rejoin our motorcoach and cross the "Mighty Mac" Bridge which connects the Upper and Lower Peninsula at Mackinaw City. We continue through Michigan stopping in Frankenmuth for lunch and shopping before continuing to Dundee for our last night. B
