NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION. PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY.

Disclosure of Your Health Care Information

Treatment

We may disclose your health care information to other healthcare professionals within our practice for the purpose of treatment, payment, or healthcare operations. For example:

"On occasion, it may be necessary to seek consultation regarding your condition from other health care providers associated with Total Life Counseling, Inc."

Payment

We may disclose your health information to your insurance provider for the purpose of payment or health care operations.

If payment is not made as arranged, our office may utilize an outside collection agency, credit reporting agency, or other means of collecting an outstanding debt. Your file, containing protected health care information, may be reviewed by the designated collection agency or authority.

Workers' Compensation

If applicable, we may disclose your health information as necessary to comply with state Workers' Compensation Laws.

Emergencies

We may disclose your health information to notify, or assist in notifying a family member or another person responsible for your care, about your medical condition in the event of an emergency or of your death.

Public Health

As required by law, we may disclose your health information to public health authorities for purposes related to: preventing or controlling disease, injury, or disability; reporting child abuse or neglect; reporting domestic violence; reporting to the Food and Drug Administration problems with products and reactions to medications; and reporting disease or infection exposure.

Judicial and Administrative Proceedings

We may disclose your health information in the course of any administrative or judicial proceeding.

Law Enforcement

We may disclose your health information to a law enforcement official for purposes such as identifying or locating a suspect, fugitive, material witness or missing person, complying with a court order or subpoena, and other law enforcement purposes.

Public Safety

It may be necessary to disclose your health information to appropriate persons in order to prevent or lessen a serious and imminent threat to the health or safety of a particular person or to the general public.

Specialized Government Agencies

We may disclose your health information for military, national security, prisoner, and government benefit purposes.

Other Communications

We may contact you for such activities as confirming or scheduling appointments, as described below: (example)

"As a courtesy or to confirm/schedule an appointment or to follow-up on a missed appointment, we may call your home. If you are not at home, we may leave a reminder message on your answering machine or with the person answering the phone. No protected health information will be disclosed during this call other than the date and time of your scheduled appointment and a request to call our office if you need to cancel or reschedule your appointment."

Change of Ownership

In the event that Total Life Counseling, Inc. is sold or merged with another organization, your health information/record will become the property of the new owner.

Your Heath Information Rights

- You have the right to request restrictions on certain uses and disclosures of your health information.
 Please be advised however, that Total Life Counseling, Inc. is not required to agree to the restriction you requested.
- You have the right to have your health information received or communicated through an alternative method or sent to an alternative location other than the usual method of communication or delivery, upon your request.
- You have the right to inspect and copy your health information.
- You have a right to request that Total Life Counseling, Inc. amend your protected health information. Please be advised, however, that Total Life Counseling, Inc. is not required to agree to amend your protected health information. If your request to amend your health information has been denied, you will be provided with an explanation of our denial reason(s) and information about how you can disagree with this denial.
- You have a right to receive an accounting of disclosures of your protected health information made by Total Life Counseling, Inc.
- You have a right to a paper copy of this Notice of Privacy Practices at any time upon request.

Changes to this Notice of Privacy Practices

Total Life Counseling, Inc. reserves the right to amend this Notice of Privacy Practices at any time in the future and will make the new provisions effective for all information that it maintains. Until such amendment is made, Total Life Counseling, Inc. is required by law to comply with this notice.

Total Life Counseling, Inc. is required by law to maintain the privacy of your health information and to provide you with notice of its legal duties and privacy practices with respect to your health information. If you have questions about any part of this notice or if you want more information about your privacy rights, please contact: The Privacy and Security Officer by calling this office at (540) 989-1383. If the Privacy and Security Officer is not available, you may make an appointment for a personal conference in person or by telephone within 2 working days.

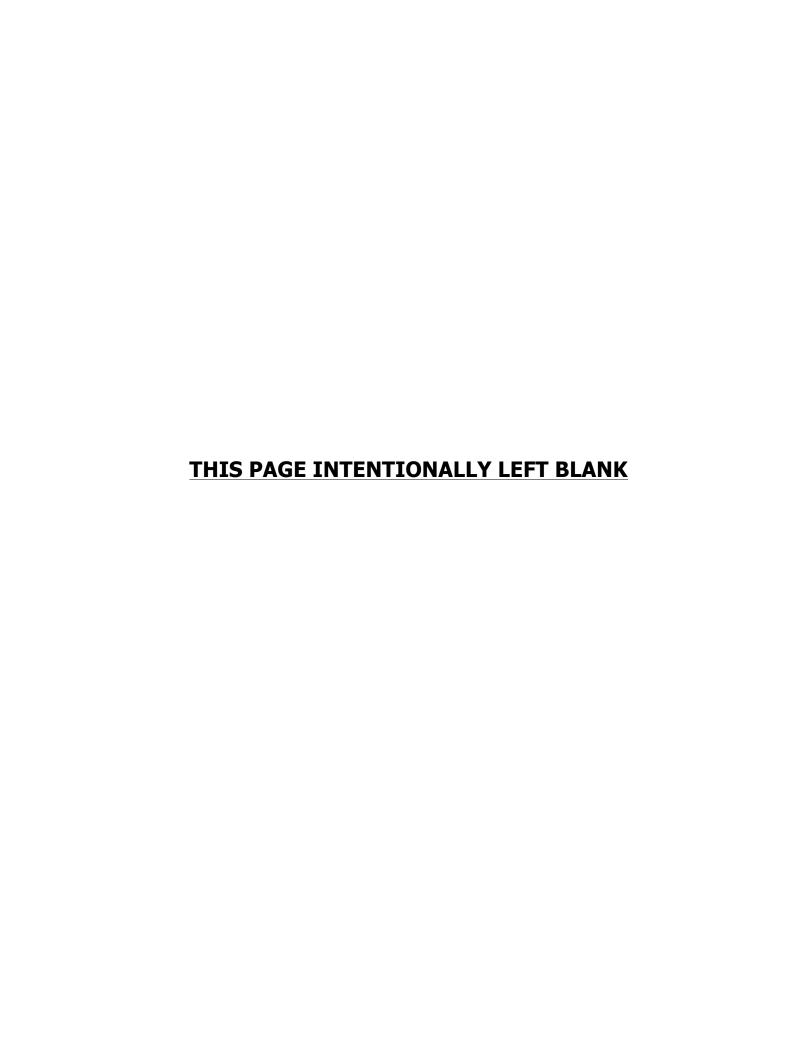

Complaints

DHHS, Office of Civil Rights

Complaints about your privacy rights or how Total Life Counseling, Inc. has handled your health information should be directed to The Privacy and Security Officer by calling this office at (540) 989-1383. If The Privacy and Security Officer is not available, you may make an appointment for a personal conference in person or by telephone within 2 working days.

MONTHLY STATEMENT:

If you have a balance on your account, we will send you a monthly statement. It will show a previous balance, any new charges to the account and any payments or credits applied to your account during the month.

PAST DUE ACCOUNTS:

Outstanding balances over 90 days may result in a referral to our collection procedure. If we turn the account over to our collection process, any fees, including court costs, attorney fees, and collection fee of $40, accumulated as a result of failure to pay will become the client's responsibility.

DIVORCE:

In the case of divorce or separation, the party responsible for the account prior to the divorce or separation, remains the responsible party for the account. After a divorce or separation, the parent authorizing treatment for a child will be the parent responsible for those subsequent charges. If the divorce decree requires the other parent to pay all or part of the treatment costs, it is the authorizing parent's responsibility to collect from the other parent.

WAIVER OF CONFIDENTIALITY:

If we are forced to submit a past-due account to our collection agency, or if past due status is reported to a credit reporting agency, the fact that you received treatment at our office may become a matter of public record.

CHARGES:

Charges range from $105.00 to $120.00 per session, depending on the length of your session. Sessions typically are 45 minutes to 60 minutes in length depending on which counselor you see and the immediacy of the problem. Charges for resident counseling sessions are $50.00.

TESTING:

The cost for psychological tests ranges from $30.00 to $75.00. Some insurance policies will not cover testing therefore the patient will be responsible for the fee. The test, PREPARE/ENRICH, used for premarital counseling and marriage enrichment, has a different fee schedule. The cost of this test is typically not covered by insurance.

HOSPITALIZATION:

For acute mental and emotional problems, inpatient hospitalization may be necessary. Persons requiring intensive treatment can be evaluated for admission to our Partial Day Psychiatric Hospitalization Program. Our brochure gives more detail about our partial day program.

RETURNED CHECKS:

There is a $35.00 fee for returned checks plus any additional fees charged by banks or lending institutions.

TRANSFERRING OF RECORDS:

We will, with a properly signed release of information, release copies of records to another counselor, doctor, attorney, court, or insurance company. Your authorization allows us to include all relevant information, including your payment history. If you are requesting your records be transferred to us, you authorize us to receive all relevant information, including your payment history. There is a fee for this service.

CO-SIGNATURE:

If another person signs this agreement, or another financial policy, that co-signature remains in effect until canceled in writing. If written cancellation is received, it becomes effective with future charges.

THIRD-PARTY BILLING:

A signed release of information must be on file and a letter of commitment from the third party must be received before we can bill a third party.

EFFECTIVE DATE:

Once you have signed this agreement, you agree to all the terms and conditions contained herein and the agreement will be in full force and effect.

I acknowledge that I have read this summary and agree to its conditions.

I also grant permission to exchange information necessary for reimbursement with my insurance company and I understand that I am responsible for any charges not covered by insurance. I also authorize my insurance company to pay directly to TOTAL LIFE COUNSELING, INC., reimbursement of charges for services rendered.

If I am not filing insurance, I understand that I am responsible for all charges applied to this account.
