

THE SOCIETY FOR THE STUDY OF ANCIENT EGYPT (S.S.A.E Local Chesterfield Group)

Are proud to present an illustrated lecture on

"The Divine Bestiary"

- Date: Saturday, 17th September at 1.30 pm
The lecture lasts approximately 2 hours including a break.
- Speaker: John Wyatt, Ornitho-Egyptologist.
- Location: Lecture Theatre, Chesterfield Central Library New Beetwell Street,
Chesterfield, Derbyshire, S40 1QN
- Admission: £3 Day-Visitor cost on the door, no membership required.
- Requirements: No previous knowledge required, our group is aimed at everyone with a love of ancient Egypt.
- Topic: "The Divine Bestiary"

"This wide-ranging and light-hearted talk will examine the main creation myths of Ancient Egypt and the major gods and goddesses involved in these before going on to look at some of the further deities linked to animals, birds, reptiles, amphibians and insects and why these may have been chosen. This unusual and fully illustrated approach to the Egyptian Pantheon should prove most informative and revealing."

S.S.A.E Chesterfield

The SSAE was formed in 1992, primarily for people in the Chesterfield, Nottingham and Derby areas with an interest in Ancient Egyptian history and art.

The SSAE local group is self-funded and depends on door sales. The group is based in Chesterfield and organise a programme of 6 lectures a year and social/ fundraising events.

The SSAE Main Society has 6 lectures a year (3 in Nottingham, 3 in Chesterfield), social events and trips in the UK and abroad and produces a Membership magazine (the Scribe) 4 times a year.
