

Artists' rendition of the Wardell Bison Trap: early evidence of a communal bison kill involving the use of the bow and arrow in southwestern Wyoming.

Mural provided by Green River Valley Museum, Big Piney, Wyoming. Mural by local artists: Lynn Thomas, Chairman McLellan, Ruth Rawhouser, assisted by Betty Pfaff, Tib Sutherland, Ann Ampach, and Mary Knapp. Photo by Richard Collier.

WYOMING ARCHAEOLOGY WEEK

FEBRUARY 18-25, 1995

Sponsored by:

Wyoming State Historic Preservation Office • Wyoming State Archaeologist Office • Wyoming State Museum • Bureau of Land Management
U.S. Forest Service • U.S. Bureau of Reclamation • Wyoming Association of Professional Archaeologists • Wyoming Archaeological Society
Wyoming Council for the Humanities • University of Wyoming Anthropology Department • Wyoming Department of Transportation
Friends of the Washakie County Museum • Green River Valley Museum • F.E. Warren Air Force Base • National Park Service

