Mission Statement

We, the members of Saint Benedict Parish, in union with our Pastoral staff, our Bishop, and our Holy Father, and together with the Church of Altoona-Johnstown, commit ourselves to the building up of the Kingdom of God in our personal lives, within our families, within our Faith Community, and in society as a whole. We join with one another in prayer and public worship, in the practice of gracious hospitality, and in works of charity and mutual support. Mindful of the Lord's care and loving concern for our common welfare, and with profound Faith and great hope, we strive to accomplish the tasks at hand and to meet the challenges of the future so that in all things God may be glorified.

Pastor's Reflection

Jesus is asking us to come to Him and place all of our concerns and needs at His feet. He is a merciful Lord, who forgives us and wants us to share with Him all of our blessings, hopes, dreams and sorrows. He is inviting us to open our hearts to receive His boundless compassion and love.

Peace,

Father Jude

Families and the Gospel

July 5, Matthew 11:25-30 Just as Jesus received a mission today, parents accept the mission of raising a family. Parents are not alone in this exhausting and difficult mission. Today Jesus tells us "Come to me and I will give you rest." (Used with permission from "A Family Perspective" by Bud Ozar)

Stewardship Reflections

Today's psalmist sings with joy, "let all our works give you thanks, O Lord, and let your faithful ones bless you." A steward's life is grounded in giving thanks and being transformed into a person who lives with an "attitude of gratitude."

By handing our ordinary lives over to Jesus we can rest in the promise of Jesus that to labor in His name we can learn to be humble and not act as if becoming a Christian steward is burdensome., "For my yoke is easy, and my burden light." (Matthew 11:30)
