UPCOMING MEETINGS: Youth Faith Commission: Tuesday, December 7th at 12:00 pm via Zoom.

TRANSFORMED THROUGH EUCHARIST

*What happens during the Eucharist? How important is Eucharist to you?
Why are you preparing your child to make their First Communion?*

Given our current reality, it has been decided that this session will now only be offered virtually, taking place via Zoom on Thursday, November 25th beginning at 6:30 p.m. While the session is open to anyone interested in exploring more about the sacrament of Eucharist, parents of children preparing to receive First Eucharist in the spring of 2022 at any parish within the English sector, are asked to participate in this session, which will deepen your understanding of what the Church believes and teaches about the sacrament of Eucharist. Facilitators Karen LeBlanc and Ellen Bennett will offer an overview of the Liturgy of the Eucharist, and talk about how, through the Eucharist, the bread and wine and the assembly are transformed again into the Body of Christ. Registration will need to be done by contacting Ellen or your parish catechetical coordinator so that the Zoom link can be sent to you.

Faith Experiments Express Learn about faith and scripture using science experiments (for grades 1-6). We will be holding another Faith Experiments Express (via Zoom) on Monday, November 29th at 6:00 pm. Register with Trevor or with Karen at 387-4198, catechism.set@gmail.com. Register online by going to www.diomoncton.ca → Pastoral Offices → Youth Faith Development and click on the poster for Faith Experiments Express.

Mondays @ The Movies Connecting faith to popular films, will meet again on November 29th at 10:30 am via Zoom when we will be discussing the 1947 version of Miracle on 34th Street. All participants will have watched the film prior to the session, register with Trevor or Karen at catechism.set@gmail.com or 387-4198. Register online by going to www.diomoncton.ca → Pastoral Offices → Youth Faith Development and click on the poster for Mondays @ The Movies.

Several years ago, I was approached by a student from Crandall University and asked to do an interview about what it was like to be Roman Catholic. This young lady was doing a project for her Religious Studies class and wanted to see the similarities, and differences, between the Baptist tradition in which she was raised and Roman Catholicism. In her work for her project, she came to mass every Sunday for a month, interviewed myself and a couple of others, and spent a little time with some church documents found on the internet. I was the last person she interviewed for this project, and at the end of the interview she told me something that has stuck with me to this day. She said, "In my religion, God is our Father, while in your religion, He seems to be your King".

For the next little while I spent some time thinking about this rather startling observation. Spending close to 30 years involved in the R.C.I.A. process and meeting many people who were coming to us from other faith traditions, I have learned that there are many ways our church is perceived from the outside looking in; and some not very flattering. I guess the same can be said the other way as well. But, for some reason, this was different. This wasn't the usual stuff about how we worship saints and statues, only pray to Mary, and think we can do anything we want, then go to confession, and all is good. This statement, by this young lady, went right to the core of how I lived out my relationship with God.

When I think of kings and queens, and royalty in general, I think of people of privilege who are detached from the lives their subjects lead and are unapproachable to the common person. This is not the God, or for that matter, the Jesus that I know. The Jesus that I know is as close to me as my next breath. He is concerned with every aspect of my life; the joys and the sorrows, the victories and the defeats. And, he is so approachable, that if I forget to reach out to him from time to time, then he reaches out to me. Then it dawned on me that my thoughts about kings and queens were somewhat narrow minded. A king can also be someone you would want to emulate. Someone you would want to pattern yourself after. So, I went searching for what would be considered qualities of a good king. Here's what I found: A good king is very clear, there is no question about their vision; a good king is decisive, courageous, passionate, and humble. As I looked at these qualities and matched them up with Jesus of Nazareth that I have come to know and love, I came to the conclusion that King is indeed an appropriate title. And what's great about this situation is that its like having your father as king. Always with your best interest at heart. Always there when you need him. Always welcoming you home, no matter where life's journeys have taken you.

I often wonder what kind of grade the young lady from Crandall received for her project. I would never say that her conclusions were incorrect, but maybe, incomplete. Yes, I will concede that God is our King. But that's only one side of who God is for us. God is the only king I have ever known who loved his people so much that he wanted to become one of them so he could lead them safely home. That One is who we celebrate today; Christ the King.

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL SOCIETY

Will again offer our "Tags for Toys" toy drive to help support the Salvation Army in their quest to offer toys to the less fortunate of our community. There will no longer be a tree with tags, but rather a table operated by a volunteer. Tags will be passed to the Parishioner with the gender and age that is requested. This must be done quickly as you exit the Church. Note: picking up a Tag is not absolutely necessary; you can just purchase the gift of your choice. (The tags are simply an effort to get a cross section of ages and both genders). Tags will be available for pick up beginning November 20th through to December 4th. Bring your gift "unwrapped" and deposit it in the Boxes provided in the entrance of the church.

The deadline to drop your gift is the weekend of December 12th.

Let Us Love One Another: A Three-Part Journey of Reconciliation

The third liturgy in our three evenings of prayer and discernment around the Residential School situation will take place Wednesday evening, November 24th at 7 o'clock at Holy Family Church in Moncton. Each evening stands on its own, and you do not have to have been at the first two liturgies to come to the third. We are looking to come together as community and come to God to find a path forward. All are welcome.
