

Minnesota Music Hall of Fame Inductee

Erwin Suess

Inducted in 2003

Erwin Suess - Born in Sleepy Eye, Erwin Suess received a button accordion at the age of six. That is when the music began. When he was 15 he acquired his first concertina and in 1947 began playing with bands. In 1969 he formed his own band, the Hoolerie Dutchmen. The Hoolerie Dutchmen have received awards, recorded fifteen volumes of music, traveled to many states in the U.S. and to Canada and Europe.
