ALL SAINTS DAY – NOVEMBER 1 HOLY DAY OF OBLIGATION

Mass will be at 6:00 pm here at Saint Paul's Catholic Center

All Hallows Eve

We celebrate Halloween on the evening before All Saints Day. The word itself is a shortened form of "All Hallows Eve", which quite literally means "the eve of All Saints". From the earliest days of the Feast of All Saints (mid 700s A.D), Catholics observed October 31 as the vigil of this November 1 celebration. This feast commemorates the lives of Christians who lived exemplary lives of faith. Pope Sixtus IV introduced an octave to the feast day in the 1400s which was celebrated until 1955.

In the United States, the secular celebration of Halloween combines the diverse holidays and cultural practices of the immigrants who settle here. The Church has not issued any prohibitions on celebrating Halloween, so Catholics remain free to participate in accord with their conscience. Naturally, such participation must not conflict with their faith or Christian charity.
