

Hungry 4 Some Supper

"Yep, Kenny, I'm kinda hungry for some supper myself." Those were the words that stuck with Chris from the time he was about 5 or 6 years old and we were coming back from a day at the Milwaukee Zoo with all 4 boys. It just struck us all as super funny since no one had even been discussing supper! From that day on, one of us would usually say to Chris that they were "Kinda hungry for some supper themselves!"

As a family we are so proud of Chris! This run is an opportunity to carry on doing what he believed in. To keep on inspiring people to be more than they believe they can be, and to do more than they think they can do! A simple gift of time, love & energy to someone else in the community can change lives.

He wanted to encourage people to become an organ & tissue donor so one day they might give the greatest gift of all...life. Friends, Family, Community. That is what life is about!

Who is Hungry 4 Some Supper?

Christian M. Rector passed away on May 19, 2009, after a tragic accident at his home. He was only 16 years old, but had already touched so many lives.

Hungry 4 Some Supper Myself Charitable Trust was created in February 2010 to help Chris' family & friends celebrate his life and to help him to continue to inspire people to be more than they thought they could be.

Even though Chris was only 16 years old, he had already made the decision to become an organ & tissue donor. His decision to become an organ donor has given 3 people more time with their family & friends. And his eye and tissue donations have restored quality of life to over 60 others.

We have 3 goals for our organization.

1. Raise awareness about organ donation.
2. Raise funds for the Baraboo Food Pantry.
3. Raise funds for scholarships in Chris' memory.

Over the last 6 years, we have donated over $50,000 back to the local community through donations to the Food Pantry and the Christian M. Rector Memorial Scholarship. We need your help to continue this success! Please help us carry on in Chris' spirit and help our community to grow & prosper together!
