

Influential Women Throughout US History

Abigail Adams
Betty Freidan
Dorthea Dix
Carrie Nation

Eleanor Roosevelt
Florence Kelley
Harriet Tubman
Harriet Beecher Stowe

Ida Tarbell
Ida B. Wells
Jane Addams
Phyllis Schlafly

Rosa Parks

Lucretia Mott,
Elizabeth Cady Stanton, &
Susan B Anthony

_____ Created the Hull House (a settlement house) to give the poor shelter and food.

_____ Reformed prisons and treatment of the mentally ill.

_____ African American civil rights advocate, spoke out against lynching.

_____ Campaigned against women working out of the home. Believed women should be happy being housewives.

_____ First women's advocates that met at Seneca Falls to discuss women's rights and the plan to achieve full suffrage rights.

_____ Wrote The Feminine Mystique and explained to women that she understood why they were dissatisfied with being housewives.

_____ Wrote Uncle Tom's Cabin and explained the lives of slaves to those around the United States that have never seen it first hand.

_____ Wrote to her husband to "remember the ladies". Believed that women should not be bound by laws in which they had no voice.

_____ Advocate for the Temperance movement. Famous for walking it to saloons and private bars to preach to those inside.

_____ Conductor of the Underground Railroad, helping thousands of run away slaves escape to the North.

_____ Great women's rights advocate during her husband's presidency and the Great Depression.

_____ Leader of the Civil Rights movement starting the Montgomery Bus Boycott.

_____ Great advocate for children's rights during the Progressive era.

_____ Muckraker who wrote about The History of the Standard Oil Co. and brought attention to the corruption of big business.